(p) And there be also many other things that Jesus did, which if they be written each by himself, I deem that the world itself shall not take the books, that be to be written.
(t) There are also many other things which Jesus did: the which if they should be written every one, I suppose the world could not contain the books that should be written.
(g) Now there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose the world could not contain the books that should be written, Amen.
(k) And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

(k) There is no fear of God before their eyes.

3:19 (w) Forsooth we know, that whatever things the law speaketh, it speaketh to them that be in the law, that each mouth be stopped, and each world be made subject to God.

(p) And we know, that whatever things the law speaketh, it speaketh to them that be in the law, that each mouth be stopped, and each world be made subject to God.

(t) ¶ Yea and we know that whatsoever the law saith, he saith it to them which are under the law: That all mouths may be stopped, and all the world be subdued to God,

(g) Now we know that whatsoever ye Law saith, it saith it to them which are under ye Law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world be subject to the judgment of God.

(k) Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God {or, subject to the judgment of God}.

3:20 (w) For of the works of the law each flesh shall not be justified before him; for by the law is knowing of sin.

(p) For of the works of the law each flesh shall not be justified before him; for by the law there is knowing of sin.

(t) because that by the deeds of the law, shall no flesh be justified in the sight of God. For by the law cometh the knowledge of sin.

(g) Therefore by the works of the Law shall no flesh be justified in his sight; for by the Law cometh the knowledge of sin.

(k) Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

3:21 (w) But now without the law the rightwiseness of God is showed, that is witnessed of the law and the prophets.

(p) But now without the law the rightwiseness of God is showed, that is witnessed of the law and the prophets.

(t) ¶ Now verily is the righteousness that cometh of God declared without the fulfilling of the law having witness yet of the law, and of the prophets.

(g) But now is the righteousness of God made manifest without the Law, having witness of the Law, and of the Prophets;

(k) But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

3:22 (w) Soothly the rightwiseness of God is by the faith of Jesus Christ into all and on all that believe into him; forsooth there is no distinction, or parting.

(p) And the rightwiseness of God is by the faith of Jesus Christ into all men and on all men that believe in him; for there is no parting.

(t) The righteousness no doubt which is good before God cometh by the faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all [them] that believe.

(g) To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Jesus Christ, unto all, and upon all that believe.

(k) Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

3:23 (w) For all men sinned, and have need to the glory of God;

(p) For all men sinned, and have need to the glory of God;

(t) ¶ [For] There is no difference, for all have sinned, and lack the praise that is of valor before God:

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(g) For there is no difference; for all have sinned, and are deprived of the glory of God,

(k) For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

3:24 (w) and be justified freely by his grace, by the redemption, or the again-buying, that is in Jesus Christ.

(p) and be justified freely by his grace, by the again-buying that is in Christ Jesus.

(t) but are justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

(g) And are justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

(k) Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

3:25 (w) Whom God purposed an helper, by faith in his blood, to the showing of his rightwiseness, for the remission of before-going sins, in the bearing up of God,

(p) Whom God ordained forgiver, by faith in his blood, to the showing of his rightwiseness, for remission of before-going sins, in the bearing up of God,

(t) whom God hath made a seat of mercy through faith in his blood, to show the righteousness which before him is of valor, in that he forgiveth the sins that are passed,

(g) Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness, by the forgiveness of the sins that are passed through the patience of God,

(k) Whom God hath set forth {or, foreordained} to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past {or, passing over}, through the forbearance of God;

3:26 (w) to the showing of his rightwiseness in this time, that he be just, and justifying him that is of the faith of Jesus Christ.

(p) to the showing of his rightwiseness in this time, that he be just, and justifying him that is of the faith of Jesus Christ.

(t) which God did suffer to show at this time: the righteousness that is allowed of him, that he might be counted just, and a justifier of him which believeth on Jesus.

(g) To shew at this time his righteousness, that he might be just, and a justifier of him which is of the faith of Jesus.

(k) To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

3:27 (w) Where then is thy glorying? It is excluded. By what law? Of deeds doing? Nay, but by the law of faith.

(p) Where then is thy glorying? It is excluded. By what law? Of deeds doing? Nay, but by the law of faith.

(t) ¶ Where is then thy rejoicing? It is excluded. By what law? By the law of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

(g) Where is then the rejoicing? It is excluded. By what Law? Of works? Nay, but by the Law of faith.

(k) Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

3:28 (w) For we deem a man to be justified by faith, without works of the law.

(p) For we deem a man to be justified by faith, without works of the law.

(t) ¶ For we suppose [We suppose therefore] that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

(g) Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the works of the Law.

(k) Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

3:29 (w) Whether of the Jews is God only? Whether he is not also of heathen men? Yes, and of heathen men.

(p) Whether of the Jews is God only? Whether he is not also of heathen men? Yes, and of heathen men.

(t) Is he the God of the Jews only? Is he not also the God of the gentiles? Yes, even of the gentiles also. [He is no doubt, God also of the gentiles.]

(g) God, is he the God of the Jews only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, even of the Gentiles also.

- 3:30 (w) For there is one God, that justifieth circumcision by faith, and prepuce by faith.
(p) For there is one God, that justifieth circumcision by faith, and prepuce by faith.
(t) For it is God only which justifieth circumcision, which is of faith: and uncircumcision through faith.
(g) For it is one God, who shall justify circumcision of faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
(k) Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
- 3:31 (w) Destroy we therefore the law by faith? Far be it; but we stablish the law.
(p) Destroy we therefore the law by faith? God forbid; but we stablish the law.
(t) Do we then destroy the law through faith? God forbid. But We rather maintain the law.
(g) Do we then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid; yea, we establish the Law.
(k) Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4

- 4:1 (w) What then shall we say, that Abraham our father after the flesh found?
(p) What then shall we say, that Abraham our father after the flesh found?
(t) ¶ What shall we say then, that Abraham our father as pertaining to the flesh did find?
(g) What shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found concerning the flesh?
(k) What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
- 4:2 (w) For if Abraham is justified of works of the law, he hath glory, but not with God.
(p) For if Abraham is justified of works of the law, he hath glory, but not with God.
(t) If Abraham were justified by deeds, then hath he wherein to rejoice: but not with God.
(g) For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath wherein to rejoice, but not with God.
(k) For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
- 4:3 (w) For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed to God, and it was reckoned to him to rightwiseness.
(p) For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed to God, and it was areckoned to him to rightwiseness.
(t) For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
(g) For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.
(k) For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
- 4:4 (w) And to him that worketh meed is not given to, or reckoned, after grace, but by debt.
(p) And to him that worketh meed is not areckoned by grace, but by debt.
(t) To him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of favor: but of duty.
(g) Now to him that worketh, the wages is not counted by favor, but by debt;
(k) Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
- 4:5 (w) But to him that worketh not, but believing into him that justifieth the wicked man, or unpious, his faith is reckoned to rightwiseness, after the purpose of God's grace.
(p) Soothly to him that worketh not, but believeth into him that justifieth a wicked man, his faith is areckoned to rightwiseness, after the purpose of God's grace.

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (t) To him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, is his faith counted for righteousness.
- (g) But to him that worketh not, but believeth in him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
- (k) But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
- 4:6 (w) As and David saith the blessedness of a man, to whom God accepteth, rightwiseness without works,
(p) As David saith the blessedness of a man, whom God accepteth, he giveth to him rightwiseness without works of the law,
(t) Even as David describeth the blessed fulness of the [a] man, unto whom God ascribeth righteousness without deeds:
(g) Even as David declareth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, saying,
(k) Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
- 4:7 (w) Blessed be they, whose wickednesses be forgiven, and whose sins be covered, or hid.
(p) Blessed be they, whose wickednesses be forgiven, and whose sins be hid.
(t) Blessed are they, whose unrighteousnesses are [is] forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
(g) Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
(k) Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
- 4:8 (w) Blessed is that man, to whom God reckoned not sin.
(p) Blessed is that man, to whom God areckoned not sin.
(t) Blessed is that man to whom the Lord imputeth not sin.
(g) Blessed is the man to whom the Lord imputeth not sin.
(k) Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
- 4:9 (w) Then whether dwelleth this blessedness only in circumcision, or also in prepuce? For we say, that the faith was reckoned to Abraham to rightwiseness.
(p) Then whether dwelleth this blessedness only in circumcision, or also in prepuce? For we say, that the faith was areckoned to Abraham to rightwiseness.
(t) ¶ Came this blessedness then upon the circumcised or upon the uncircumcised? We say verily how that faith was reckoned to Abraham, for righteousness.
(g) Came this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed unto Abraham for righteousness.
(k) Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
- 4:10 (w) How then was it reckoned? in circumcision, or in prepuce? Not in circumcision, but in prepuce.
(p) How then was it areckoned? in circumcision, or in prepuce? Not in circumcision, but in prepuce.
(t) How was it reckoned? in the time of circumcision? or in the time before he was circumcised? Not in time of circumcision: but when he was yet uncircumcised.
(g) How was it then imputed? When he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not when he was circumcised, but when he was uncircumcised.
(k) How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
- 4:11 (w) And he took a sign of circumcision, a marking, or tokening, of rightwiseness of faith which is in prepuce, that he be father of all men believing by prepuce, that it be reckoned also to them to rightwiseness;

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(p) And he took a sign of circumcision, a token of rightwiseness of the faith which is in prepuce, that he be father of all men believing by prepuce, that it be areckoned also to them to rightwiseness;

(t) And he received the sign of circumcision, as a seal of the [that] righteousness which is by faith, which faith he had yet being uncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,

(g) After, he received the sign of circumcision, as the seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was uncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that believe, not being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,

(k) And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

4:12 (w) and that he be father of circumcision, not only to them that be of circumcision, but and to them that follow the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, that is in prepuce.

(p) and that he be father of circumcision, not only to them that be of circumcision, but also to them that follow the steps of the faith, which faith is in prepuce of our father Abraham.

(t) And that he might be the father of the circumcised: not because they are circumcised only: but because they walk also in the steps of that faith, that [which] was in our father Abraham before the time of circumcision.

(g) And the father of circumcision, not unto them only which are of the circumcision, but unto them also that walk in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was uncircumcised.

(k) And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

4:13 (w) For not by the law is the promise to Abraham, or to his seed, that he should be the heir of the world, but by the rightwiseness of faith.

(p) For not by the law is promise to Abraham, or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world, but by the rightwiseness of faith.

(t) ¶ For the promise that he should be heir of the world was not given to Abraham, or to his seed through the law: but through the righteousness which cometh of faith.

(g) For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not given to Abraham, or to his seed, through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

(k) For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

4:14 (w) For if they that be of the law, be heirs, faith is destroyed, promise is done away.

(p) For if they that be of the law, be heirs, faith is destroyed, promise is done away.

(t) For if they which are of the law be heirs, then is faith but vain, and the promise of none effect.

(g) For if they which are of the Law, be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect.

(k) For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

4:15 (w) Forsooth the law worketh wrath; soothly where the law is not, neither is prevarication, or trespassing.

(p) For the law worketh wrath; for where is no law, there is no trespass, neither is trespassing.

(t) Because the law causeth wrath. For where no law is, there is no transgression.

(g) For the Law causeth wrath, for where no Law is, there is no transgression.

(k) Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

- 4:16 (w) Therefore rightwiseness is of faith, that after grace promise be stable, or steadfast, to each seed, not to that seed only that is of the law, but to that that is of the faith of Abraham, which is father of us all.
(p) Therefore rightwiseness is of faith, that by grace promise be stable to each seed, not to that seed only that is of the law, but to that that is of the faith of Abraham, which is father of us all.
(t) Therefore by faith is the inheritance given, that it might come of favor: and [that] the promise might be sure to all the seed. Not to them only which are of the law: but also to them which are of the faith of Abraham, which is the father of us all.
(g) Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the Law, but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,
(k) Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

(t) ¶ Which Abraham, contrary to hope, believed in hope, that he should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken: So shall thy seed be.
(g) Which Abraham above hope, believed under hope, that he should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, So shall thy seed be.

(t) And he fainted not in the faith, nor yet considered his own body, which was now dead, even when he was almost an hundred year old. Neither yet that Sara was past childbearing [considered he the barrenness of Sara].
(g) And he not weak in the faith, considered not his own body, which was now dead, being almost a hundred years old, neither the deadness of Sarah's womb;
(k) And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:
- 4:20 (w) Also in the promise of God he doubted not with untrust; but he was comforted in belief, giving glory to God,
(p) Also in the promise of God he doubted not with untrust; but he was comforted in belief, giving glory to God,

(p) For if when we were enemies, we be reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more we reconciled shall be safe in the life of him.
(t) ¶ For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his son: much more, seeing we are reconciled, we shall be preserved by his life.
(g) For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life,
(k) For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
- 5:11 (w) And not only this, but also we glory in God, by our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have received now reconciling, or according.
(p) And not only this, but also we glory in God, by our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have received now reconciling.
(t) Not only so, but we also joy in God by the means of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have received the [this] atonement.
(g) And not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.
(k) And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement {or, reconciliation}.
- 5:12 (w) Therefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and by sin death, and so death passed forth into all men, in which man all men sinned.
(p) Therefore as by one man sin entered into this world, and by sin death, and so death passed forth into all men, in which man all men sinned.
(t) ¶ Wherefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by the means of sin. And so death went over all men, insomuch that all men sinned.
(g) Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death went over all men, in whom all men have sinned.
(k) Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that {or, in whom} all have sinned:
- 5:13 (w) Soothly till to the law sin was in the world; but sin was not reckoned, when the law was not.
(p) For unto the law sin was in the world; but sin was not reckoned, when law was not.
(t) For even unto the time of the law was sin in the world: but sin was not regarded, as long as there was no law:

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(g) For unto the time of the Law was sin in the world, but sin is not imputed, while there is no law.

(k) (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

5:14 (w) But death reigned from Adam till to Moses, also into them that sinned not in likeness of the trespassing of Adam, the which is form, or likeness, of one to come.

(p) But death reigned from Adam unto Moses, also into them that sinned not in likeness of the trespassing of Adam, the which is likeness of Christ to coming.

(t) nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them also that sinned not, with like transgression as did Adam: which is the similitude of him that is [was] to come.

(g) But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

(k) Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

5:15 (w) But not as the guilt, or trespass, so and the gift; soothly if through the trespass of one many be dead, much more the grace of God and the gift in the grace of one man Jesus Christ hath abounded into many men.

(p) But not as guilt, so the gift; for if through the guilt of one many be dead, much more the grace of God and the gift in the grace of one man Jesus Christ hath abounded into many men.

(t) ¶ But the gift is not like as [is] the sin. For if through the sin of one, many be dead: much more plenteous upon many was the grace [favor] of God and gift by grace [favor]: which grace [favor] was given by one man Jesus Christ.

(g) But yet the gift is not so as is the offence. For if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

(k) But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

5:16 (w) And not as by one sin, so by the gift; for why soothly doom of one into condemnation, grace forsooth of many guilts, or trespassings, into justification.

(p) And not as by one sin, so by the gift; for the doom of one into condemnation, but the grace of many guilts into justification.

(t) ¶ And the gift is not over one sin, as death came through one sin of one that sinned. For damnation came of one sin unto condemnation: But the gift came to justify from many sins.

(g) Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned; for the fault came of one offence unto condemnation, but the gift is of many offences to justification.

(k) And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

5:17 (w) For if in the guilt of one death reigned through one, much more men that take plenty of grace, and of giving, and of rightwiseness, shall reign in life by one Jesus Christ.

(p) For if in the guilt of one death reigned through one, much more men that take plenty of grace, and of giving, and of rightwiseness, shall reign in life by one Jesus Christ.

(t) For if by the sin of one, death reigned by the means of one, much more shall they which receive abundance of grace [favor] and of the gift of righteousness reign in life by the means of one (that is to say) Jesus Christ.

(g) For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receive the abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, reign in life through one, that is, Jesus Christ.

(k) For if by one man's offence {or, by one offence} death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- 5:18 (w) Therefore as by the guilt of one into all men into condemnation, so and by the rightwiseness of one into all men into justifying of life.
(p) Therefore as by the guilt of one into all men into condemnation, so by the rightwiseness of one into all men into justifying of life.
(t) ¶ Likewise then as by the sin of one, condemnation came on all men: even so by the justifying of one cometh the righteousness that bringeth life, upon all men.
(g) Likewise then, as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the justifying of one, the benefit abounded toward all men to the justification of life.
(k) Therefore as by the offence of one {or, by one offence} judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one {or, by one righteousness} the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.
- 5:19 (w) For as by unobedience of one man many be made sinners, so by the obedience of one many shall be ordained just.
(p) For as by unobedience of one man many be made sinners, so by the obedience of one many shall be just.
(t) For as by one man's disobedience many became sinners: so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.
(g) For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.
(k) For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.
- 5:20 (w) And the law entered, that guilt should be plenteous; but where guilt was plenteous, grace abounded, or was plenteous.
(p) And the law entered, that guilt should be plenteous; but where guilt was plenteous, grace was more plenteous.
(t) ¶ But The law in the mean time entered in that sin should increase. Neverthelater [And] where abundance of sin was, there was more plenteousness of grace.
(g) Moreover, the Law entered thereupon, that the offence should abound, nevertheless, where sin abounded, there grace abounded much more;
(k) Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
- 5:21 (w) That as sin reigned into death, so and grace reign by rightwiseness into everlasting life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.
(p) That as sin reigned into death, so grace reign by rightwiseness into everlasting life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.
(t) That as sin had reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by the help of Jesus Christ.
(g) That as sin had reigned unto death, so might grace also reign by righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.
(k) That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

- 6:1 (w) Therefore what shall we say? Shall we dwell in sin, that grace be plenteous?
(p) Therefore what shall we say? Shall we dwell in sin, that grace be plenteous?
(t) ¶ What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that there may be abundance of grace?
(g) What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid.
(k) What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
- 6:2 (w) Far be it. For how shall we that be dead to sin, live yet therein?

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (p) God forbid. For how shall we that be dead to sin, live yet therein?
(t) God forbid. How shall we that are dead as touching sin live any longer therein?
(g) How shall we, that are dead to sin, live yet therein?
(k) God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?
- 6:3 (w) Whether, brethren, ye know not, that whichever we be baptized in Christ Jesus, we be baptized in his death?
(p) Whether, brethren, ye know not, that whichever we be baptized in Christ Jesus, we be baptized in his death?
(t) Remember ye not that all we which are baptized in the name of Jesus Christ [Christ Jesus], are baptized to die with him?
(g) Know ye not, that all we which have been baptized into Jesus Christ, have been baptized into his death?
(k) Know ye not, that so many of us as were {or, are} baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?
- 6:4 (w) For we be together buried with him by baptism into death; that as Christ rose from dead by the glory of the Father, and walk we in a newness of life.
(p) For we be together buried with him by baptism into death; that as Christ arose from death by the glory of the Father, so walk we in a newness of life.
(t) We are buried with him by baptism for to die: That likewise as Christ was raised up from death by the glory of the father: even so we also should walk in a new life.
(g) We are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should walk in newness of life.
(k) Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.
- 6:5 (w) For if we planted together be made to the likeness of his death, also we shall be of the likeness of his rising again;
(p) For if we planted together be made to the likeness of his death, also we shall be of the likeness of his rising again;
(t) For if we be graft in death like unto him: even so must we be in the resurrection.
(g) For if we be planted with him to the similitude of his death, even so shall we be to the similitude of his resurrection,
(k) For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:
- 6:6 (w) witting this thing, that our old man is crucified together, that the body of sin be destroyed, that we serve no more to sin.
(p) witting this thing, that our old man is crucified together, that the body of sin be destroyed, that we serve no more to sin.
(t) This we must remember, that our old man is crucified with him also, that the body of sin might utterly be destroyed, that henceforth we should not be servants of sin.
(g) Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.
(k) Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.
- 6:7 (w) For he that is dead to sin, is justified from sin.
(p) For he that is dead, is justified from sin.
(t) For he that is dead, is justified from sin.
(g) For he that is dead, is freed from sin.
(k) For he that is dead is freed {Gr. justified} from sin.

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

- 6:8 (w) And if we be dead with Christ, we believe that also we shall live together with him;
(p) And if we be dead with Christ, we believe that also we shall live together with him;
(t) ¶ Wherefore if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall live with him:
(g) Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall live also with him,
(k) Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:
- 6:9 (w) witting that Christ, rising again from dead, now dieth not, death shall no more have lordship on him.
(p) witting that Christ, rising again from death, now dieth not, death shall no more have lordship on him.
(t) remembering that Christ once raised from death, dieth no more. Death hath no more power over him.
(g) Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.
(k) Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.
- 6:10 (w) For that he was dead to sin, he was dead once; but that he liveth, he liveth to God.
(p) For that he was dead to sin, he was dead once; but that he liveth, he liveth to God.
(t) For as touching that he died, he died [as] concerning sin once. And as touching that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
(g) For in that he died, he died once to sin; but in that he liveth, he liveth to God.
(k) For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.
- 6:11 (w) and ye deem yourselves to be dead soothly to sin, but living to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
(p) So ye deem yourselves to be dead to sin, but living to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
(t) Likewise imagine ye also, that ye are dead [as] concerning sin: but are alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
(g) Likewise think ye also, that ye are dead to sin, but are alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
(k) Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 6:12 (w) Therefore reign not sin in your deadly body, that ye obey to his covetings.
(p) Therefore reign not sin in your deadly body, that ye obey to his covetings.
(t) Let not sin reign therefore in your mortal bodies, that ye should thereunto obey in the lusts of it.
(g) Let not sin reign therefore in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof;
(k) Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.
- 6:13 (w) Neither give ye your members arms of wickedness to sin, but give ye yourselves to God, as they that live of dead men, and your members arms of rightwiseness to God.
(p) Neither give ye your members arms of wickedness to sin, but give ye yourselves to God, as they that live of dead men, and your members arms of rightwiseness to God.
(t) Neither give ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: But give yourselves unto God, as they that are alive from death. And give your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.
(g) Neither give ye your members, as weapons of unrighteousness unto sin; but give yourselves unto God, as they that are alive from the dead, and give your members as weapons of righteousness unto God.
(k) Neither yield ye your members as instruments {Gr. arms, or, weapons} of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.
- 6:14 (w) For sin shall not have lordship over you; for ye be not under the law, but under grace.
(p) For sin shall not have lordship over you; for ye be not under the law, but under grace.
(t) Let not sin [Sin shall not] have power over you. For ye are not under the law, but under grace.

(k) For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.
- 6:15 (w) What therefore? Shall we sin, for we be not under the law, but under grace? Far be it.
(p) What therefore? Shall we do sin, for we be not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.
(t) ¶ What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the law: but under grace? God forbid.
(g) What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the Law, but under grace? God forbid.
(k) What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.
- 6:16 (w) Know ye not, for to whom ye give you servants to obey, ye be servants of that thing, to whom ye have obeyed, either of sin to death, either of obedience to rightwiseness?
(p) Know ye not, that to whom ye give yourselves servants to obey to, ye be servants of that thing, to which ye have obeyed, either of sin to death, either of obedience to rightwiseness?
(t) Remember ye not how that to whomsoever ye commit yourselves as servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey: whether it be of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?
(g) Know ye not, that to whomsoever ye give yourselves as servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?
(k) Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?
- 6:17 (w) But I thank God, that ye were servants of sin; but ye have obeyed of heart into that form of teaching, in which ye be betaken.
(p) But I thank God, that ye were servants of sin; but ye have obeyed of heart into that form of teaching, in which ye be betaken.
(t) God be thanked. That though Ye were once the servants of sin: Ye have yet [But now have] obeyed with your hearts unto the form of doctrine where unto ye were delivered.
(g) But God be thanked, that ye have been the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart unto the form of the doctrine, whereunto ye were delivered.
(k) But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you {Gr. whereto ye were delivered}.
- 6:18 (w) And ye delivered from sin, be made servants of rightwiseness.
(p) And ye delivered from sin, be made servants of rightwiseness.
(t) Ye are then made free from sin, and are become the servants of righteousness.
(g) Being then made free from sin, ye are made the servants of righteousness.
(k) Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.
- 6:19 (w) I say that thing that is of man, for the infirmity, or unsteadiness, of your flesh. But as ye have given your members to serve to uncleanness, and to wickedness into wickedness, so now give ye your members to serve to rightwiseness into holiness.
(p) I say that thing that is of man, for the unsteadfastness of your flesh. But as ye have given your members to serve to uncleanness, and to wickedness into wickedness, so now give ye your members to serve to rightwiseness into holiness.
(t) ¶ I will speak grossly because of the infirmity of your flesh. As ye have given your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity, from iniquity unto iniquity: even so now give your members servants unto righteousness, that ye may be sanctified.
(g) I speak after the manner of man, because of the infirmity of your flesh, for as ye have given your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity, to commit iniquity, so now give your members servants unto righteousness in holiness.

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

(k) I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

6:20 (w) For when ye were servants of sin, ye were free of rightwiseness.

(p) For when ye were servants of sin, ye were free of rightwiseness.

(t) For when ye were servants of sin, ye were not under righteousness.

(g) For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were freed from righteousness.

(k) For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from {or, to} righteousness.

6:21 (w) Therefore what fruit had ye then in those things, in which ye shame now? For the end of them is death.

(p) Therefore what fruit had ye then in those things, in which ye shame now? For the end of them is death.

(t) What fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed. For the end of those things is death.

(g) What fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

(k) What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

6:22 (w) But now ye delivered from sin, and made servants to God, have your fruit into holiness, and the end everlasting life.

(p) But now ye delivered from sin, and made servants to God, have your fruit into holiness, and the end everlasting life.

(t) But now are ye delivered from sin, and made the servants of God, and have your fruit that ye should be sanctified, and the end everlasting life.

(k) But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

6:23 (w) For the wages of sin is death; the grace of God is everlasting life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(p) For the wages of sin is death; the grace of God is everlasting life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(t) For the reward of sin is death: but eternal life is the gift of God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(g) For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(k) For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7

7:1 (w) Brethren, whether ye know not; for I speak to men that know the law; for the law hath lordship in a man, as long time as he liveth?

(p) Brethren, whether ye know not; for I speak to men that know the law; for the law hath lordship in a man, as long time as he liveth?

(t) ¶ Remember ye not brethren (I speak to them that know the law) how that the law hath power over a man as long as it endureth:

(g) Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the Law) that the Law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

(k) Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

7:2 (w) For that woman that is under an husband, is bound to the law, while the husband liveth; soothly if her husband be dead, she is delivered, or unbound, from the law of the husband.

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(p) For that woman that is under an husband, is bound to the law, while the husband liveth; but if her husband is dead, she is delivered from the law of the husband.

(t) For the woman which is in subjection to a man, is bound by the law to the man, as long as he liveth. If the man be dead, she is loosed from the law of the man.

(g) For the woman which is in subjection to a man, is bound by the law to the man, while he liveth; but if the man be dead, she is delivered from the law of the man.

(k) For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

7:3 (w) Therefore living the man, she shall be called adulteress, if she be with another man; forsooth if her husband be dead, she is delivered from the law of the husband, that she be not adulteress, if she be with another man.

(p) Therefore she shall be called adulteress, if she be with another man, while the husband liveth; but if her husband is dead, she is delivered from the law of the husband, that she be not adulteress, if she be with another man.

(t) So then if while the man liveth she couple herself with another man, she shall be counted a wedlock breaker. But if the man be dead she is free from the law: so that she is no wedlock breaker, though she couple herself with another man.

(g) So then, if while the man liveth, she taketh another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if the man be dead, she is free from the Law, so that she is not an adulteress, though she take another man.

(k) So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

7:4 (w) Therefore, my brethren, and ye be made dead to the law by the body of Christ, that ye be another's, that rose from dead, that we bear fruit to God.

(p) And so, my brethren, ye be made dead to the law by the body of Christ, that ye be of another, that rose again from death, that ye bear fruit to God.

(t) ¶ Even so ye my brethren, are dead [ye also are made dead] as concerning the law by the body of Christ, that ye should be coupled to another (I mean to him that is risen again from death) that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

(g) So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the body of Christ, that ye should be unto another, even unto him that is raised up from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

(k) Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

7:5 (w) For when we were in flesh, passions of sins, that were by the law, wrought in our members, to bear fruit to death.

(p) For when we were in flesh, passions of sins, that were by the law, wrought in our members, to bear fruit to death.

(t) For When we were in the flesh, the lusts of sin which were stirred up by the law, reigned in our members, to bring forth fruit unto death.

(g) For when we were in the flesh, the affections of sins, which were by the Law, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit unto death.

(k) For when we were in the flesh, the motions {Gr. passions} of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

7:6 (w) But now we be unbound from the law of death, in which we were holden, so that we serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter.

(p) But now we be unbound from the law of death, in which we were held, so that we serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter.

(t) But now are we delivered from the law, and dead from that whereunto [from it, whereunto] we were in bondage, that we should serve in a new conversation of the spirit, and not in the old conversation of the letter.

(g) But now we are delivered from the Law, being dead unto it wherein we were holden, that we should serve in newness of Spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(k) But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead {or, being dead to that} wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7:7 (w) What therefore shall we say? The law is sin? Far be it. But I knew not sin, but the law; for I knew not that coveting was sin, but for the law said, Thou shalt not covet.

(p) What therefore shall we say? The law is sin? God forbid. But I knew not sin, but by law; for I knew not that coveting was sin, but for the law said, Thou shalt not covet.

(t) ¶ What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid: but I knew not what sin meant [and] but by the law. For I had not known what lust had meant, except the law had said, thou shalt not lust.

(g) What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sin, but by the Law, for I had not known lust, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not lust.

(k) What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust {or, concupiscence}, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

7:8 (w) And through occasion taken, sin by the commandment hath wrought in me all coveting, or covetousness; for without the law, sin was dead.

(p) And through occasion taken, sin by the commandment hath wrought in me all covetousness; for without the law, sin was dead.

(t) But sin took an occasion by the means of the commandment, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For verily without the law sin was dead.

(g) But sin took an occasion by the commandment, and wrought in me all manner of concupiscence; for without the Law sin is dead.

(k) But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

7:9 (w) Forsooth I lived without the law sometime; but when the commandment was come, sin lived again. But I was dead,

(p) And I lived without the law sometime; but when the commandment was come, sin lived again. But I was dead,

(t) I once lived without law: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I was dead.

(g) For I once was alive, without the Law; but when the commandment came, sin revived,

(k) For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

7:10 (w) and the commandment that was to life, was found to me, to be to death.

(p) and this commandment that was to life, was found to me, to be to death.

(t) And the very same commandment which was ordained unto life, was found to be unto me an occasion of death.

(g) But I died, and the same commandment which was ordained unto life, was found to be unto me unto death.

(k) And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

7:11 (w) For sin, through occasion taken by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

(p) For sin, through occasion taken by the commandment, deceived me, and by that it slew me.

(t) For sin took occasion by the means of the commandment and so deceived me, and by the self commandment slew me.

(g) For sin took occasion by the commandment, and deceived me, and thereby slew me.

(k) For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

7:12 (w) Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, and just, and good.

(p) Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, and just, and good.

(t) Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, just, and good.

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

(g) Wherefore the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy, and just, and good.

(k) Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

7:13 (w) Is then that thing that is good, made death to me? Far be it. But sin, that it appear sin, through good thing wrought death to me, that there be made sin sinning over manner, or measure, by commandment.

(p) Is then that thing that is good, made death to me? God forbid. But sin, that it seem sin, through good thing wrought death to me, that me sin over manner through the commandment.

(t) ¶ Was that then which is good made death unto me? God forbid. Nay sin was death unto me, that it might appear how that sin by the means of that which is good, had wrought death in me: that sin which is under the commandment, might be out of measure sinful.

(g) Was that then which is good, made death unto me? God forbid; but sin, that it might appear sin, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sin might be out of measure sinful by the commandment.

(k) Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

7:14 (w) And we know, that the law is spiritual; but I am fleshly, sold under sin.

(p) And we know, that the law is spiritual; but I am fleshly, sold under sin.

(t) For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin:

(g) For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin.

(k) For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.

7:15 (w) For I understand not that that I work; for I do not the good thing that I will, but I do that evil thing that I hate.

(p) For I understand not that that I work; for I do not the good thing that I will, but I do that evil thing that I hate.

(t) because I know not what I do. For what I would, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

(g) For I allow not that which I do, for what I would, that do I not, but what I hate, that do I.

(k) For that which I do I allow {Gr. know} not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

7:16 (w) And if I do that thing that I will not, I consent to the law, that it is good.

(p) And if I do that thing that I will not, I consent to the law, that it is good.

(t) If I do now that which I would not, I grant to the law that it is good.

(g) If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

(k) If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

7:17 (w) But now I work not it now, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

(p) But now I work not it now, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

(t) So then now it is not I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

(g) Now then, it is no more I, that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

(k) Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

7:18 (w) But I know, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good; for will lieth to (before) me, truly to perform good thing I find not.

(p) But I know, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good; for will lieth to me (for will lieth before me), but I find not to perform good thing.

(t) For I know that in me (that is to say in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing. To will is present with me: but I find no means to perform that which is good.

Book 45 The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romans

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(g) For I know, that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing; for to will is present with me, but I find no means to perform that which is good.

(k) For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

7:19 (w) For I do not that good thing that I will, but I do that evil thing that I will not.

(p) For I do not that good thing that I will, but I do that evil thing that I will not.

(t) For I do not that good thing which I would: but that evil do I, which I would not.

(g) For I do not the good thing, which I would, but the evil, which I would not, that do I.

(k) For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

7:20 (w) Soothly if I do that thing that I will not, I work not it, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

(p) And if I do that evil thing that I will not, I work not it, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

(t) Finally, if I do that I would not, then is it not I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me doeth it.

(g) Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

(k) Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

7:21 (w) Therefore I find a law to me willing to do good thing, for evil thing lieth to (before) me.

(p) Therefore I find the law to me willing to do good thing, for evil thing lieth to me (for evil thing lieth before me).

(t) I find then by the law that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

(g) I find then by the Law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

(k) I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

7:22 (w) For I delight together to the law of God, after the inner man.

(p) For I delight together to the law of God, after the inner man.

(t) I delight in the law of God, [as] concerning the inner man.

(g) For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the inner man;

(k) For I delight in the law of God after the inward man:

7:23 (w) But I see another law in my members, fighting against the law of my soul, and making me captive in the law of sin, that is in my members.

(p) But I see another law in my members, fighting against the law of my soul, and making me captive in the law of sin, that is in my members.

(t) But I see another law in my members rebelling against the law of my mind, and subduing me unto the law of sin, which is in my members.

(g) But I see another law in my members, rebelling against the law of my mind, and leading me captive unto the law of sin, which is in my members.

(k) But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

7:24 (w) I am a woeful man; who shall deliver me from the body of this sin?

(p) I am an unhappy man; who shall deliver me from the body of this sin?

(t) O wretched man that I am: who shall deliver me from this body of death?

(g) O wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

(k) O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death {or, this body of death}?

- 7:25 (w) Forsooth the grace of God, by Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore I myself by the soul serve to the law of God; but by the flesh to the law of sin.
(p) The grace of God, by Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore I myself by the soul serve to the law of God; but by the flesh to the law of sin.
(t) I thank God through [by] Jesus Christ our Lord: So then I myself in my mind serve the law of God, and in my flesh the law of sin.
(g) I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Then I myself in my mind serve the Law of God, but in my flesh the law of sin.
(k) I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

- 8:1 (w) Therefore now nothing of condemnation is to them that be in Christ Jesus, which wander not after the flesh.
(p) Therefore now nothing of condemnation is to them that be in Christ Jesus, which wander not after the flesh.
(t) ¶ There is then no damnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, which walk not after the flesh: but after the spirit.
(g) Now then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, which walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
(k) There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
- 8:2 (w) For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath delivered me from the law of sin, and death.
(p) For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath delivered me from the law of sin, and of death.
(t) For the law of the spirit, that bringeth [wherein is] life through Jesus Christ, hath delivered me from the law of sin, and death.
(g) For the Law of the Spirit of life which is in Christ Jesus, hath freed me from the law of sin and of death.
(k) For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
- 8:3 (w) For that that was impossible to the law, in that thing it was sick, or frail, by flesh, God sending his Son into the likeness of flesh of sin, and of sin condemned sin in flesh;
(p) For that that was impossible to the law, in what thing it was frail by flesh, God sent his Son into the likeness of flesh of sin, and of sin condemned sin in flesh;
(t) For what the law could not do in as much [as] it was weak because of the flesh: that performed God, and sent his son in the similitude of sinful flesh, and by sin damned sin in the flesh:
(g) For (that which was impossible to the Law, in as much as it was weak, because of the flesh) God sending his own Son, in the similitude of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh,
(k) For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin {or, by a sacrifice for sin}, condemned sin in the flesh:
- 8:4 (w) that the justifying of the law were fulfilled in us, that not after the flesh we wander, but after the Spirit.
(p) that the justifying of the law were fulfilled in us, that go not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
(t) that the righteousness required of the law, might be fulfilled in us, which walk not after the flesh: but after the spirit.
(g) That the righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us, which walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
(k) That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

(p) For they that be after the flesh, understand those things that be of the flesh; but they that be after the Spirit, feel those things that be of the Spirit.
(t) ¶ For they that are carnal, are carnally minded. But [And] they that are spiritual are ghostly minded.
(g) For they that are after the flesh, savor the things of the flesh, but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.
(k) For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.
- 8:6 (w) For the prudence of flesh is death; but the prudence of Spirit is life and peace.
(p) For the prudence of flesh is death; but the prudence of Spirit is life and peace.
(t) To be carnally minded is death. But [And] to be spiritually minded is life, and peace:
(g) For the wisdom of the flesh is death, but the wisdom of the Spirit is life and peace,
(k) For to be carnally minded {Gr. the minding of the flesh} is death; but to be spiritually minded {Gr. the minding of the spirit} is life and peace.
- 8:7 (w) For the wisdom of the flesh is enemy to God; for it is not subject to the law of God, soothly neither it may be subject to the law.
(p) For the wisdom of the flesh is enemy to God; for it is not subject to the law of God, for neither it may.
(t) because that the fleshly mind is enmity against God: For it is not obedient to the law of God, neither can be.
(g) Because the wisdom of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be.
(k) Because the carnal mind {Gr. the minding of the flesh} is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
- 8:8 (w) For they that be in flesh, may not please to God.
(p) And they that be in flesh, be not able to please to God.
(t) So then they that are given to the flesh, cannot please God.
(g) So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.
(k) So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
- 8:9 (w) But ye be not in flesh, but in Spirit; if nevertheless the Spirit of God dwell in you. But if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, this is not his.
(p) But ye be not in flesh, but in Spirit; if nevertheless the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, this is not his.
(t) ¶ But ye are not given to the flesh, but to the spirit: If so be that the spirit of God dwell in you. If there be any man that hath not the spirit of Christ, the same is none of his.
(g) Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. But if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.
(k) But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

(g) And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sin, but the Spirit is life for righteousness' sake.
(k) And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

(p) And if the Spirit of him that raised Jesus Christ from death dwelleth in you, he that raised Jesus Christ from death, shall quicken also your deadly bodies, for the Spirit of him that dwelleth in you.
(t) Wherefore if the spirit of him that raised up Jesus from death, dwell in you: even he that raised up Christ from death, shall quicken your mortal bodies, because that this [his] spirit dwelleth in you.
(g) But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortal bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.
(k) But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by {or, because of} his Spirit that dwelleth in you.
- 8:12 (w) Therefore, brethren, we be debtors, not to the flesh, that we live after the flesh.
(p) Therefore, brethren, we be debtors, not to the flesh, that we live after the flesh.
(t) ¶ Therefore brethren we are now debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh:
(g) Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to live after the flesh;
(k) Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.
- 8:13 (w) For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die; but if ye by the Spirit shall slay the deeds of the flesh, ye shall live.
(p) For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die; but if ye by the Spirit slay the deeds of the flesh, ye shall live.
(t) For if ye live after the flesh, ye must die. But if ye mortify the deeds of the body, by the help of the spirit, ye shall live,
(g) For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die; but if ye mortify the deeds of the body by the Spirit, ye shall live.
(k) For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.
- 8:14 (w) For whoever be led by the Spirit of God, these be the sons of God.
(p) For whoever be led by the Spirit of God, these be the sons of God.
(t) for as many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sons of God.
(g) For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.
(k) For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.
- 8:15 (w) For ye have not taken again the spirit of servage in dread, but ye have taken the Spirit of adoption of sons, in which we cry, Abba, Father.
(p) For ye have not taken again the spirit of servage in dread, but ye have taken the Spirit of adoption of sons, in which we cry, Abba, Father.
(t) For ye have not received the spirit of bondage to fear any more, but ye have received the spirit of adoption whereby we cry Abba father.
(g) For ye have not received the Spirit of bondage, to fear again, but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry Abba, Father.
(k) For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.
- 8:16 (w) And that Spirit yieldeth witnessing to our spirit, that we be the sons of God;
(p) And that Spirit yieldeth witnessing to our spirit, that we be the sons of God;
(t) The same spirit certifieth our spirit that we are the sons of God.
(g) The same Spirit beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

- 8:17 (w) forsooth if sons, and heirs, soothly heirs of God, truly even-heirs of Christ; if nevertheless we suffer together, that also we be glorified together.
(p) if sons, and heirs, heirs forsooth of God, and heirs together with Christ; if nevertheless we suffer together, that also we be glorified together.
(t) If we be [the] sons, we are also heirs (the heirs I mean of God) and heirs annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer together, that we may be glorified together.
(g) If we be children, we are also heirs, even the heirs of God, and heirs annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.
(k) And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.
- 8:18 (w) And I deem, that the passions of this time be not even worthy to the glory to come, that shall be showed in us.
(p) And I deem, that the passions of this time be not worthy to the glory to coming, that shall be showed in us.
(t) ¶ For I suppose that the afflictions of this life, are not worthy of the glory which shall be showed upon us.
(g) For I count that the afflictions of this present time are not worthy of the glory, which shall be shewed unto us.
(k) For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.
- 8:19 (w) For the abiding of creature abideth the showing of the sons of God.
(p) For the abiding of creature abideth the showing of the sons of God.
(t) Also the fervent desire of the creatures abideth looking when the sons of God shall appear
(g) For the fervent desire of the creature waiteth when the sons of God shall be revealed,
(k) For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.
- 8:20 (w) Soothly the creature is subject to vanity, not willing, but for him that subjected it in hope;
(p) But the creature is subject to vanity, not willing(ly), but for him that made it subject in hope;
(t) because the creatures are subdued to vanity against their will: but for his will which subdueth [subdued] them in hope.
(g) Because the creature is subject to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him, which hath subdued it under hope,
(k) For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope,
- 8:21 (w) for and that creature shall be delivered from servage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the sons of God.
(p) for that creature shall be delivered from servage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the sons of God.
(t) For the very creatures shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the sons of God.
(g) Because the creature also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the sons of God.

(p) And not only it, but also we us selves, that have the first fruits of the Spirit, and we us selves sorrow within us for the adoption of God's sons, abiding the again-buying of our body.
(t) ¶ Not they only, but even we also which have the first fruits of the spirit mourn in ourselves and wait for the adoption, and look for the deliverance of our bodies.
(g) And not only the creature, but we also which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we do sigh in ourselves, waiting for the adoption, even the redemption of our body.
(k) And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.
- 8:24 (w) Soothly by hope we be made safe. Forsooth the hope that is seen, is not hope; for why what hopeth a man that thing, that he seeth?
(p) But by hope we be made safe. For hope that is seen, is not hope; for who hopeth that thing, that he seeth?
(t) For we are saved by hope. But hope that is seen is no hope. For how can a man hope for that which he seeth?
(g) For we are saved by hope, but hope that is seen, is not hope; for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?
(k) For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?
- 8:25 (w) And if we hope that thing that we see not, we abide by patience.
(p) And if we hope that thing that we see not, we abide by patience.
(t) but and if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience abide for it.
(g) But if we hope for that we see not, we do with patience abide for it.
(k) But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.
- 8:26 (w) And also the Spirit helpeth our infirmity; for what we shall pray, as it behooveth, we know not, but that Spirit asketh for us with sorrowings, that be not able to be told out.
(p) And also the Spirit helpeth our infirmity; for what we shall pray, as it behooveth, we know not, but that Spirit asketh for us with sorrowings, that may not be told out.
(t) ¶ Likewise the spirit also helpeth our infirmities. For we know not, what to desire as we ought: but the spirit maketh intercession mightily for us with groanings which cannot be expressed with tongue.
(g) Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities; for we know not what to pray as we ought, but the Spirit itself maketh request for us with sighs, which cannot be expressed.
(k) Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
- 8:27 (w) For he that seeketh the hearts, knoweth what the Spirit desireth, for after God, that is, at God's will, he asketh for holy men.
(p) For he that seeketh the hearts, knoweth what the Spirit desireth, for by God he asketh for holy men.
(t) And he that searcheth the hearts [heart] knoweth what is the meaning of the spirit: for he maketh intercession for the saints according to the pleasure of God.
(g) But he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit, for he maketh request for the Saints, according to the will of God.
(k) And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because {or, that} he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

(g) I suppose then this to be good for the present necessity, I mean that it is good for a man so to be.
(k) I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress {or, necessity}, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.
- 7:27 (w) Thou art bound to a wife, do not thou seek unbinding; thou art unbound from a wife, do not thou seek a wife.
(p) Thou art bound to a wife, do not thou seek unbinding; thou art unbound from a wife, do not thou seek a wife.
(t) Art thou bound unto a wife? Seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? Seek not a wife.
(g) Art thou bound unto a wife? Seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? Seek not a wife.
(k) Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
- 7:28 (w) But if thou hast taken a wife, thou hast not sinned; and if a maiden is wedded, she sinned not; nevertheless such shall have tribulation of flesh. But I spare you.
(p) But if thou hast taken a wife, thou hast not sinned; and if a maiden is wedded, she sinned not; nevertheless such shall have tribulation of flesh. But I spare you.
(t) But and if thou take a wife, thou sinnest not [hast not sinned]. Likewise if a virgin marry, she sinneth not [hath not sinned]: nevertheless such shall have trouble in their flesh: but I favor you.
(g) But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not; and if a virgin marry, she sinneth not. Nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh, but I spare you.
(k) But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
- 7:29 (w) And so, brethren, I say this thing, The time is short. Another is this, that they that have wives, be as though they had none;
(p) Therefore, brethren, I say this thing, The time is short. Another is this, that they that have wives, be as though they had none;
(t) ¶ This say I brethren, the time is short. It remaineth that they which have wives, be as though they had none:
(g) And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, hereafter that both they which have wives, be as though they had none;
(k) But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

(p) and they that weep, as they wept not; and they that joy, as they joyed not; and they that buy, as they had not;
(t) and they that weep, be as though they wept not: and they that rejoice, be as though they rejoiced not: and they that buy, be as though they possessed not:
(g) And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;
(k) And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;
- 7:31 (w) and they that use this world, as not using. Forsooth the figure, or fairness, or prosperity, of this world passeth.
(p) and they that use this world, as they that use not. For why the figure of this world passeth.
(t) And they that use this world, be as though they used it not: For the fashion of this world goeth away.
(g) And they that use this world, as though they used it not; for the fashion of this world goeth away.
(k) And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.
- 7:32 (w) Forsooth I will you to be without busyness, for he that is without wife, is busy what things be of the Lord, how he shall please God.
(p) But I will, that ye be without busyness, for he that is without wife, is busy what things be of the Lord, how he shall please God.
(t) ¶ I would have you without care, the single man careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
(g) And I would have you without care. The unmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.
(k) But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
- 7:33 (w) But he that is with a wife, is busy what things be of the world, how he shall please his wife, and he is parted.
(p) But he that is with a wife, is busy what things be of the world, how he shall please the wife, and he is parted.
(t) but he that hath married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.
(g) But he that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.
(k) But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
- 7:34 (w) And a woman unwedded and a maiden thinketh what things be of the Lord, that she be holy in body and spirit. But she that is wedded, thinketh what things be of the world, how she shall please her husband.
(p) And a woman unwedded and maiden thinketh what things be of the Lord, that she be holy in body and spirit. But she that is wedded, thinketh what things be of the world, how she shall please the husband.
(t) There is difference between a virgin and a wife. The single woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be pure both in body and also in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
(g) There is difference also between a virgin and a wife. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit; but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
(k) There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
- 7:35 (w) Soothly I say these things to your profit, not that I cast to you a snare, but to that that is honest, and that giveth facility, or easiness, without letting to beseech to the Lord.

Book 46 The First Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians

Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(p) And I say these things to your profit, not that I cast to you a snare, but to that that is seemly, and that giveth easiness, without hindering to make prayers to the Lord.

(t) This speak I for your profit, not to tangle you in a snare: but for that which is honest and comely unto you and that ye may quietly cleave unto the Lord without separation.

(g) And this I speak for your own commodity, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that which is honest, and that ye may cleave fast unto the Lord without separation.

(k) And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

7:36 (w) And if any man guesseth himself to be seen foul on his virgin, that she is well old, and so it behooveth to be done, do she what she will/do her keeper what she will/do she that he will; s/he sinneth not, if s/he be wedded.

(p) And if any man guesseth himself to be seen foul on his virgin, that she is full waxen, and so it behooveth to be done, do she that that she will; she sinneth not, if she be wedded.

(t) ¶ If any man think that it is uncomely for his virgin if she pass the time of marriage, and if so need require, let him do what he listeth, he sinneth not: let them be coupled in marriage.

(g) But if any man think that it is uncomely for his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not; let them be married.

(k) But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

7:37 (w) For why he that ordained stably, or steadfast, in his heart, not having need, but having power of his will, and hath deemed in his heart this thing, for to keep his virginity, doeth well.

(p) For he that ordained stably in his heart, not having need, but having power of his will, and hath deemed in his heart this thing, to keep his virgin, doeth well.

(t) Nevertheless, he that purposeth surely in his heart, having none need: but hath power over his own will: and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doth well.

(g) Nevertheless, he that standeth firm in his heart, that he hath no need, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, he doeth well.

(k) Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

7:38 (w) Therefore he that joineth his virgin in matrimony, doeth well; and he that joineth not, doeth better.

(p) Therefore he that joineth his virgin in matrimony, doeth well; and he that joineth not, doeth better.

(t) So then he that joineth his virgin in marriage doth well. But [And] he that joineth not his virgin in marriage doth better.

(g) So then he that giveth her to marriage, doeth well, but he that giveth her not to marriage, doeth better.

(k) So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

7:39 (w) The woman is bound to the law, as long time as her husband liveth; and if her husband is dead, she is delivered from the law, be she wedded to whom she will, only in the Lord.

(p) But she shall be more blessed, if she dwelleth thus, after my counsel; and I ween, that I have the Spirit of God.
(t) But she is happier if she so abide, in my judgment. And I think verily that I have the spirit of God.
(g) But she is more blessed, if she so abide in my judgment; and I think that I have also the Spirit of God.
(k) But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8

- 8:1 (w) But of these things that be sacrificed to idols, we know, for all we have knowing. Soothly science, or knowing, in-bloweth with pride, charity edifieth.
(p) But of these things that be sacrificed to idols, we know, for all we have knowing. But knowing bloweth, charity edifieth.
(t) ¶ To speak of things dedicated unto idols, we are sure that we all have knowledge. Knowledge maketh a man swell: but love edifieth.
(g) And as touching things sacrificed unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth.
(k) Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.
- 8:2 (w) Forsooth if any man guess, or deem, that he knoweth any thing, he hath not yet known how it behooveth him to know.
(p) But if any man guesseth, that he knoweth any thing, he hath not yet known how it behooveth him to know.
(t) If any man think that he knoweth anything, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.
(g) Now, if any man think that he knoweth anything, he knoweth nothing, yet as he ought to know.
(k) And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.
- 8:3 (w) And if any man loveth God, this is known of him.
(p) And if any man loveth God, this is known of him.
(t) But if any man love God, the same is known of him.
(g) But if any man love God, the same is known of him.
(k) But if any man love God, the same is known of him.
- 8:4 (w) But of meats that be offered to idols, we know, that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one.
(p) But of meats that be offered to idols, we know, that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one.
(t) ¶ To speak of meat dedicated unto idols, we are sure that there is none idol in the world: and that there is none other God but one.
(g) Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.
(k) As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.
- 8:5 (w) For why though there be that be said gods, either in heaven, either in earth, as there be many gods, and many lords;
(p) For though there be some that be said gods, either in heaven, either in earth, as there be many gods, and many lords;
(t) And though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth (as there be gods many and lords many)
(g) For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven, or in earth (as there be many gods, and many lords.)
(k) For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

(p) nevertheless to us is one God, the Father, of whom be all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom be all things, and we by him.
(t) yet [but] unto us is there one God, which is the father, of whom are all things, and we in him: and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
(g) Yet unto us there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
(k) But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in {or, for} him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
- 8:7 (w) But not in all men is knowing. For some men with conscience of idol till now eat as thing offered to idols; and their conscience is defouled, when it is sick.
(p) But not in all men is knowing. For some men with conscience of idol till now eat as thing offered to idols; and their conscience is defouled, for it is frail.
(t) ¶ But every man hath not knowledge. For some suppose that there is an idol, until this hour, and eat as of a thing offered unto the idol, and so their consciences being yet weak are defiled.
(g) But every man hath not that knowledge; for some having conscience of the idol, until this hour, eat as a thing sacrificed unto the idol, and so their conscience being weak, is defiled.
(k) Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
- 8:8 (w) Forsooth Meat commendeth us not to God; for neither we shall fail, if we eat not, neither if we eat, we shall abound, or have plenty.
(p) Meat commendeth us not to God; for neither we shall fail, if we eat not, neither if we eat, we shall have plenty.
(t) Meat maketh us not acceptable [accepted] to God: Neither if we eat are we the better: Neither if we eat not are we the worse.
(g) But meat maketh us not acceptable to God, for neither if we eat, have we the more; neither if we eat not, have we the less.
(k) But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better {or, have we the more}; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse {or, have we the less};.
- 8:9 (w) See ye forsooth, lest peradventure this your license, or leave, be made hurting, or offence, to sick men, or frail.
(p) But see ye, lest peradventure this your leave be made hurting to frail men.
(t) ¶ But take heed that your liberty cause not the weak to fall.
(g) But take heed lest by any means this power of yours be an occasion of falling, to them that are weak.
(k) But take heed lest by any means this liberty {or, power} of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.
- 8:10 (w) For if any man shall see him, that hath knowing, eating in a place where idols be worshipped, whether his conscience, since it is sick, shall not be edified to eat things offered to idols?
(p) For if any man shall see him, that hath knowing, eating in a place where idols be worshipped, whether his conscience, since it is frail, shall not be edified to eat things offered to idols?
(t) For if some man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple shall not the conscience of him which is weak be boldened to eat those things which are offered unto the idol?

(p) And the frail brother, for whom Christ died, shall perish in thy knowing.

(t) And so through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish for whom Christ died.

(g) And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died.

(k) And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

8:12 (w) For thus ye sinning against brethren, and smiting their sick conscience, sin against Christ.

(p) For thus ye sinning against brethren, and smiting their frail conscience, sin against Christ.

(t) When ye [we] sin so against the brethren and wound their weak consciences, ye [we] sin against Christ.

(g) Now when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

(k) But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

8:13 (w) Wherefore if meat causeth my brother to offend, I shall not eat flesh into without end, lest I cause my brother to offend.

(p) Wherefore if meat causeth my brother to stumble, I shall never eat flesh, lest I cause my brother to stumble.

(t) Wherefore if meat hurt my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, because I will not hurt my brother.

(g) Wherefore if meat offend my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

(k) Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

(p) And though to others I am not apostle, but nevertheless to you I am; for ye be the little sign of mine apostlehood in the Lord.

(t) If I be not an apostle unto other, yet am I unto you. For the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

(g) If I be not an Apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am unto you; for ye are the seal of my Apostleship in the Lord.

9:16 (w) For if I preach the gospel, glory is not to me, forsooth need lieth before me; for woe to me, if I preach not the gospel.

(p) For if I preach the gospel, glory is not to me, for need-like I must do it; for woe to me, if I preach not the gospel.

(t) ¶ Neither wrote I these things that it should be so done unto me. For It were better for me to die than any man should take this rejoicing from me. In that I preach the gospel I have nothing to rejoice of. For necessity is put unto me. Woe is it unto me if I preach not the gospel.

(g) For though I preach the Gospel, I have nothing to rejoice of, for necessity is laid upon me, and woe is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

(k) For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

9:17 (w) Forsooth if I willing do this thing, I have meed; soothly if against my will, dispensation is betaken to me.

(p) But if I do this thing willfully, I have meed; but if against my will, dispensing is betaken to me.

(t) If I do it with a good will, I have a [my] reward. But If I do it against my will, an office is committed unto me.

(g) For if I do it willingly, I have a reward, but if I do it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed unto me.

(k) For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

9:18 (w) What therefore is my hire, or meed? That I preach the gospel, put the gospel without expense, either taking of sustenance therefore, that I mis-use not my power in the gospel.

(p) What then is my meed? That I preaching the gospel, put the gospel without others' cost, that I use not my power in the gospel.

(t) What is my reward then? Verily that when I preach the gospel, I make the gospel of Christ free, that I misuse not mine authority in the gospel.

(g) What is my reward then? Verily that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not my authority in the Gospel.

(k) What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

9:19 (w) For why when I was free of all men, I made me servant of all men, that I should win more men.

(p) For why when I was free of all men, I made me servant of all men, to win the more men.

(t) ¶ For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all men, that I might win the more.

(g) For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all men, that I might win the more.

(k) For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

14:9 (w) So and but ye give an open word by tongue, how shall that that is said be known? For ye shall be speaking in the air/Soothly ye shall be speaking into the airs, or firmament,

(p) So but ye give an open word by tongue, how shall that that is said be known? For ye shall be speaking in vain.

(t) Even so likewise when ye speak with tongues, except ye speak words that have signification, how shall it be understood what is spoken? For ye shall but speak in the air.

(g) So likewise you, by the tongue, except ye utter words that have signification, how shall it be understood what is spoken? For ye shall speak in the air.

(k) I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.
- 2:14 (w) Therefore be thankings to God, that ever maketh us to have victory in Christ Jesus, and sheweth by us the odour, or savour/or sweetness, of his knowing in each place;
(p) And I do thankings to God, that evermore maketh us to have victory in Christ Jesus, and sheweth by us the odour of his knowing in each place;
(t) Thanks be unto God which always giveth us the victory in Christ, and openeth the savor of his knowledge by us in every place.
(g) Now thanks be unto God, which always maketh us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savor of his knowledge by us in every place.
(k) Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.
- 2:15 (w) for we be the good odour, or savour, of Christ to God, in these that be made safe, and in these that perish.
(p) for we be the good odour of Christ to God, among these that be made safe, and among these that perish.
(t) For we are unto God the sweet savor of Christ, both among them that are saved, and also among them which perish:
(g) For we are unto God the sweet savor of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them which perish.
(k) For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:
- 2:16 (w) Soothly to others we be odour of death into death, but to the others we be odour of life into life. And to these things who is so able?
(p) To others soothly odour of death into death, but to the others we be odour of life into life. And to these things who is so able?
(t) to the one part are we the savor of death unto death. And Unto the other part are we the savor of life unto life. And who is meet unto these things?
(g) To the one we are the savor of death, unto death, and to the other the savor of life, unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(k) To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

- 2:17 (w) Soothly we be not as full many, adulterating the word of God, but of cleanness, but as of God, before God in Christ we speak.
(p) For we be not as many, that do adultery by the word of God, but we speak of cleanness, as of God, before God in Christ.
(t) For we are not as many are which chop and change with the word of God: but even out of pureness, and by the power of God, and in the sight of God [but as they which speak of pureness, and as they which speak of God in the sight of God], so speak we in Christ.
(g) For we are not as many, which make merchandise of the word of God, but as of sincerity, but as of God in the sight of God speak we in Christ.
(k) For we are not as many, which corrupt {or, deal deceitfully with} the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAPTER 3

- 3:1 (w) Begin we again to commend, or praise, ourselves? or whether we need, as some, praising letters to you, or of you?
(p) Begin we therefore again to praise us selves? or whether we need, as some men, epistles of praising to you, or of you?
(t) ¶ We begin to praise ourselves again. Need we as some other of epistles of recommendation unto you? or letters of recommendation from you?
(g) Do we begin to praise ourselves again? Or need we as some others, Epistles of recommendation unto you, or letters of recommendation from you?
(k) Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?
- 3:2 (w) Ye be our epistle, written in our hearts, which is known and read of all men,
(p) Ye be our epistle, written in our hearts, which is known and read of all men,
(t) Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, which is understood and read of all men,
(g) Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is understood and read of all men;
(k) Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:
- 3:3 (w) and ye be made open, for ye be the epistle of Christ ministered of us, and written, not with ink, but by the Spirit of the living God; not in stony tables, but in fleshly tables of heart.
(p) and made open, for ye be the epistle of Christ ministered of us, and written, not with ink, but by the Spirit of the living God; not in stone tables, but in fleshly tables of heart.
(t) in that ye are known, how that ye are the epistle of Christ, ministered by us and written, not with ink: but with the spirit of the living God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.
(g) In that ye are manifest, to be the Epistle of Christ, ministered by us, and written, not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not in tablets of stone, but in fleshly tablets of the heart.
(k) Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.
- 3:4 (w) For we have such trust by Christ to God;
(p) For we have such trust by Christ to God;
(t) Such trust have we through Christ to Godward,
(g) And such trust have we through Christ to God;

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (k) And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:
- 3:5 (w) not that we be sufficient to think any thing of us selves, as of us, but our sufficiency is of God.
(p) not that we be sufficient to think any thing of us, as of us, but our sufficiency is of God.
(t) not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything as it were of ourselves: but our ableness cometh of God,
(g) Not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to think anything, as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God,
(k) Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
- 3:6 (w) Which also made us able ministers of the new testament, not by letter, but by Spirit; for the letter slayeth, but the Spirit quickeneth.
(p) Which also made us able ministers of the new testament, not by letter, but by Spirit; for the letter slayeth, but the Spirit quickeneth.
(t) which hath made us able to minister the new testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit: For the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.
(g) Who also hath made us able ministers of the New Testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life.
(k) Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life {or, quickeneth}.
- 3:7 (w) And if the ministration of death formed by letters in stones was in glory, so that the children of Israel might not behold into the face of Moses, for the glory of his cheer, which glory is now voided,
(p) And if the ministration of death written by letter in stones was in glory, so that the children of Israel might not behold into the face of Moses, for the glory of his face, which is voided,
(t) ¶ If the ministration of death through the letters figured in stones was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses for the glory of countenance (which glory nevertheless is done away)
(g) If then the ministration of death written with letters and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance (which glory is done away.)
(k) But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:
- 3:8 (w) how shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more in glory?
(p) how shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more in glory?
(t) why shall not the ministration of the spirit be much more glorious?
(g) How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?
(k) How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?
- 3:9 (w) For why if the ministration of condemnation is in glory, much more the ministration of righteousness is plenteous in glory.
(p) For if the ministration of condemnation was in glory, much more the ministration of righteousness is plenteous in glory.
(t) For if the administering of condemnation be glorious: much more doth [shall] the administration of righteousness exceed in glory.
(g) For if the ministry of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
(k) For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
- 3:10 (w) For neither that that was clear was glorified in this part for the excellent glory;
(p) For neither that that was clear was glorified in this part for the excellent glory;

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (t) For no doubt that which was there glorified is [was] not once glorified in respect of this exceeding glory.
(g) For even that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.
(k) For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.
- 3:11 (w) for why if that that is voided, was by glory, much more that that dwelleth still is in glory.
(p) and if that that is voided, was by glory, much more that that dwelleth still is in glory.
(t) Then if that which is destroyed was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth be glorious.
(g) For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth be glorious.
(k) For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.
- 3:12 (w) Therefore we that have such hope, use much trust;
(p) Therefore we that have such hope, use much trust;
(t) ¶ Seeing then that we have such trust we use great boldness,
(g) Seeing then that we have such trust, we use great boldness of speech.
(k) Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness {or, boldness} of speech:
- 3:13 (w) and not as Moses put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel should not behold into his face, which veil is voided.
(p) and not as Moses laid a veil on his face, that the children of Israel should not behold into his face, which veil is voided.
(t) and do not as Moses, which put a veil over his face that the children of Israel should not see for what purpose that served which is put away.
(g) And we are not as Moses, which put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look unto the end of that which should be abolished.
(k) And not as Moses, which put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
- 3:14 (w) But the wits of them be astonished; for till into this day the same veil in the reading of the old testament dwelleth unshowed, for it is voided in Christ,
(p) But the wits of them be astonished; for into this day the same veil in reading of the old testament dwelleth not showed, for it is voided in Christ,
(t) But their minds were [are] blinded. For until this day remaineth the same covering untaken away in the old testament when they read it, which in Christ is put away:
(g) Therefore their minds are hardened; for until this day remaineth the same covering untaken away in the reading of the Old Testament, which veil in Christ is put away.
(k) But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.
- 3:15 (w) but till into this day, when Moses is read, the veil is put upon their hearts.
(p) but into this day, when Moses is read, the veil is put on their hearts.
(t) But even unto this day, when Moses is read the veil hangeth before their hearts.
(g) But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is laid over their hearts.
(k) But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.
- 3:16 (w) But when Israel shall be converted to God, the veil shall be done away.
(p) But when Israel shall be converted to God, the veil shall be done away.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (t) Nevertheless when they turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.
(g) Nevertheless when their heart shall be turned to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.
(k) Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.
- 3:17 (w) Forsooth the Lord is a Spirit; forsooth where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty, or freedom.
(p) And the Spirit is the Lord; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.
(t) The Lord no doubt is a spirit. And where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
(g) Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
(k) Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
- 3:18 (w) Forsooth all we with showed face beholding the glory of the Lord, be transformed into the same image, from clearness to clearness, as of the Spirit of the Lord.
(p) And all we that with open face see the glory of the Lord, be transformed into the same image, from clearness into clearness, as of the Spirit of the Lord.
(t) But we all behold the glory of the Lord with his face open, and are changed into the same similitude, from glory to glory, even of the spirit of the Lord [And now the Lord's glory appeareth in us all, as in a glass: and we are changed unto the same similitude, from glory to glory, even of the Lord which is a spirit].
(g) But we all behold as in a mirror the glory of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.
(k) But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord {or, of the Lord the spirit}.

CHAPTER 4

- 4:1 (w) Therefore we having this administration, or office, after this that we have gotten mercy, fail we not,
(p) Therefore we that have this administration, after this that we have gotten mercy, fail we not,
(t) ¶ Therefore seeing that we have such an office, even as mercy is come on us, we faint not:
(g) Therefore, seeing that we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;
(k) Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;
- 4:2 (w) but do away the privy things of shame, not walking in subtle guile, neither adulterating the word of God, but in showing of the truth commending ourselves to each conscience of men before God.
(p) but do we away the privy things of shame, not walking in subtle guile, neither doing adultery by the word of God, but in showing of the truth commending us selves to each conscience of men before God.
(t) but have cast from us the cloaks of dishonesty, and walk not in craftiness, neither corrupt we the word of God: but walk in open truth, and report ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
(g) But have cast from us the cloaks of shame, and walk not in craftiness, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully, but in declaration of the truth we approve ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
(k) But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty {Gr. shame}, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
- 4:3 (w) For if also our gospel is covered, or hid, in these that perish it is covered;
(p) For if also our gospel is covered, or hid, in these that perish it is covered;
(t) ¶ If our Gospel be yet hid, it is hid among them that are lost,
(g) If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.
(k) But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

- 4:4 (w) in which the god of this world, that is, the devil, or pride, hath blinded the souls of men out of belief, or unfaithful men, that the lighting of the gospel of the glory of Christ, that is the image of God, shine not.
(p) in which god of this world, that is, the devil, hath blinded the souls of unfaithful men, that the lightening of the gospel of the glory of Christ, which is the image of God, shine not.
(t) in whom the God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest should shine unto them the light of the glorious gospel of Christ which is the image of God [should shine unto them],
(g) In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine unto them.
(k) In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.
- 4:5 (w) Soothly we preach not ourselves, but Jesus Christ our Lord; and us your servants by Jesus.
(p) But we preach not us selves, but our Lord Jesus Christ; and us your servants by Jesus.
(t) ¶ for we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus to be the Lord, and [preach] ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.
(g) For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.
(k) For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.
- 4:6 (w) For God, that said the light to shine of darkneses, he hath enlightened in our hearts, to the illumining of the science of the clearness of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.
(p) For God, that said light to shine of darkneses, he hath given light in our hearts, to the lightening of the science of the clearness of God, in the face of Jesus Christ.
(t) For it is God that commanded the light to shine out of darkness, which hath shined in our hearts, for to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God [of knowledge of the glorious God], in the face of Jesus Christ.
(g) For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkness, is he which hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
(k) For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
- 4:7 (w) And we have this treasure in brittle vessels, that the highness be of God's virtue, and not of us.
(p) And we have this treasure in brittle vessels, that the worthiness be of God's virtue, and not of us.
(t) ¶ But we have this treasure in earthen vessels that the excellent power of it might appear to be of God, and not of us.
(g) But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of that power might be of God, and not of us.
(k) But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.
- 4:8 (w) In all things we suffer tribulation, but we be not made strait/but we be not anguished thereby in soul; we be made poor, but we be not destitute, either cast away;
(p) In all things we suffer tribulation, but we be not anguished, or distressed; we be made poor, but we lack nothing;
(t) We are troubled on every side, yet are we not without shift. We are in poverty: but not utterly without somewhat.
(g) We are afflicted on every side, yet are we not in distress; we are in doubt, but yet we despair not.
(k) We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair {or, altogether without help, or, means};
- 4:9 (w) we suffer persecution, but we be not forsaken; we be made low, but we be not confounded; we be cast down, but we perish not.
(p) we suffer persecution, but we be not forsaken; we be made low, but we be not confounded; we be cast down, but we perish not.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians

(g) We are persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but we perish not.
(k) Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;
- 4:10 (w) Evermore bearing about the mortifying of Jesus Christ in our body, that also the life of Jesus be showed in our bodies.
(p) And evermore we bear about the slaying of Jesus in our body, that also the life of Jesus be showed in our bodies.
(t) And we always bear in our bodies the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might appear in our bodies.
(g) Everywhere we bear about in our body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.
(k) Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.
- 4:11 (w) For evermore we that live, be taken into death for Jesus, that and the life of Jesus be showed in our deadly flesh.
(p) For evermore we that live, be taken into death for Jesus, that the life of Jesus be showed in our deadly flesh.
(t) ¶ For we which live, are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might appear in our mortal flesh.
(g) For we which live, are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.
(k) For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.
- 4:12 (w) Therefore death worketh in us, but life in you.
(p) Therefore death worketh in us, but life in you.
(t) So then death worketh in us, and life in you.
(g) So then death worketh in us, and life in you.
(k) So then death worketh in us, but life in you.
- 4:13 (w) Forsooth having the same spirit of faith, as it is written, I have believed, wherefore I have spoken; and we believe, wherefore also we speak;
(p) And we have the same spirit of faith, as it is written, I have believed, wherefore I have spoken; and we believe, wherefore also we speak;
(t) ¶ Seeing then that we have the same spirit of faith, according as it is written: I believed and therefore have I spoken. We also believe, and therefore speak.
(g) And because we have the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken, we also believe, and therefore speak,
(k) We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

(p) witting that he that raised Jesus, shall raise up also us with Jesus, and shall ordain with you.
(t) For we know that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by the means of Jesus, and shall set us with you,
(g) Knowing that he which hath raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise us up also by Jesus, and shall set us with you.
(k) Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

(p) And all things for you, that a plenteous grace by many thankings be plenteous into the glory of God.
(t) for all things I do for your sakes, that the plenteous grace by thanks given of many, may redound to the praise of God.
(g) For all things are for your sakes, that the most plenteous grace by the thanksgiving of many, may redound to the praise of God.
(k) For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.
- 4:16 (w) For which thing we fail not, but though our outer man be corrupted; nevertheless the inner man is renewed from day to day.
(p) For which thing we fail not, for though our outer man be corrupted; nevertheless the inner man is renewed from day to day.
(t) ¶ Wherefore we are not wearied, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.
(g) Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily.
(k) For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.
- 4:17 (w) But that light, or easy, thing of our tribulation that lasteth now, but as it were by a moment, worketh over manner, or measure, into highness the everlasting weight of glory in us;
(p) But that light thing of our tribulation that lasteth now, but as it were by a moment, worketh in us over measure an everlasting burden into the highness of glory;
(t) For our exceeding tribulation, which is momentary and light, prepareth an exceeding, and eternal weight of glory unto us,
(g) For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth unto us a far most excellent and an eternal weight of glory;
(k) For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;
- 4:18 (w) while that we behold not those things that be seen, but those things that be not seen. Soothly those things that be seen, be temporal, or during but short time; forsooth those things that be not seen, be eternal, or everlasting.
(p) while that we behold not those things that be seen, but those that be not seen. For those things that be seen, be but during for a short time; but those things that be not seen, be everlasting.
(t) while we look not on the things which are seen, but on the things which are not seen. For things which are seen, are temporal: but [and] things which are not seen are eternal.
(g) While we look not on the things which are seen, but on the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen, are temporal, but the things which are not seen, are eternal.

CHAPTER 5

- 5:1 (w) And we know, that if our earthly house of this dwelling be dissolved, that we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, everlasting in heavens.
(p) And we know, that if our earthly house of this dwelling be dissolved, that we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, everlasting in heavens.
(t) ¶ We know surely if our earthy mansion wherein we now dwell were destroyed, that we have a building ordained of God, an habitation not made with hands, but eternal in heaven:
(g) For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle be destroyed, we have a building given of God, that is, a house not made with hands, but eternal in the heavens.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (k) For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
- 5:2 (w) For why in this thing we mourn, coveting to be clothed above with our dwelling, which is of heaven;
(p) For why in this thing we mourn, coveting to be clothed above with our dwelling, which is of heaven;
(t) And herefore sigh we, desiring to be clothed with our mansion which is from heaven:
(g) For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heaven.
(k) For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:
- 5:3 (w) if nevertheless we be found clothed, and not naked.
(p) if nevertheless we be found clothed, and not naked.
(t) so yet if [if it happen] that we be found clothed, and not naked.
(g) Because that if we be clothed, we shall not be found naked.
(k) If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.
- 5:4 (w) For why we that be in this tabernacle, sorrow within, and be grieved, for that we will not be despoiled, but clothed above; that that thing that is deadly, be sopped up of life.
(p) For why we that be in this tabernacle, sorrow within, and be heavied, for that we will not be spoiled, but be clothed above; that that thing that is deadly, be swallowed up of life.
(t) For as long as we are in this tabernacle, we sigh and are grieved: for we would not be unclothed: but would be clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.
(g) For indeed we that are in this tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, because we would not be unclothed, but would be clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.
(k) For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.
- 5:5 (w) Forsooth he that maketh us into this same thing, is God, that gave to us the earnest of Spirit.
(p) But who is it that maketh us into this same thing? God, that gave to us the earnest of the Spirit.
(t) He that hath ordained us for this thing, is God: which very same hath given unto us the earnest of the spirit.
(g) And he that hath created us for this thing, is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.
(k) Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.
- 5:6 (w) Therefore we be hardy all-gates, and knowing for the while we be in this body, we go in pilgrimage from the Lord;
(p) Therefore we be hardy always, and know that the while we be in this body, we go in pilgrimage from the Lord;
(t) ¶ Therefore We are always of good cheer, and know well that as long as we are at home in the body we are absent from God.
(g) Therefore we are alway bold, though we know that whiles we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.
(k) Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:
- 5:7 (w) for we walk by faith, and not by clear sight.
(p) for we walk by faith, and not by clear sight.
(t) For we walk in faith and see not.
(g) (For we walk by faith, and not by sight.)
(k) (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)
- 5:8 (w) Forsooth we be hardy, and have good will, more to be in pilgrimage from the body, and to be present to God.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (p) But we be hardy, and have good will, more to be in pilgrimage from the body, and to be present to God.
(t) Nevertheless we are of good comfort, and had lever to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord [God].
(g) Nevertheless, we are bold, and love rather to remove out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.
(k) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
- 5:9 (w) And therefore we strive, whether absent, whether present, to please him.
(p) And therefore we strive, whether absent, whether present, to please him.
(t) Wherefore, whether we be at home or from home we endeavor ourselves to please him [we endeavor ourselves, whether we be at home or from home, to please God].
(g) Wherefore also we covet, that both dwelling at home, and removing from home, we may be acceptable to him.
(k) Wherefore we labour {or, endeavour}, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.
- 5:10 (w) For it behooveth us all to be showed before the throne of Christ, that every man receive the proper things of the body, as he hath done, either good, either evil.
(p) For it behooveth us all to be showed before the throne of Christ, that every man tell the proper things of the body, as he hath done, either good, either evil.
(t) For we must all appear [be brought] before the judgment seat of Christ that every man may receive the works of his body according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad?
(g) For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that every man may receive the things which are done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or evil.
(k) For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

(p) Therefore we witting the dread of the Lord, counsel men, for to God we be open; and I hope, that we be open also in your consciences.
(t) Seeing then that we know how the Lord is to be feared, we fare fair with men. For we are known well enough unto God. I trust also that we are known in your consciences.
(g) Knowing therefore that terror of the Lord, we persuade men, and we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.
(k) Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.
- 5:12 (w) We commend not ourselves again to you, but we give to you occasion to glory for us, that ye have understanding to them that glory in the face, and not in the heart.
(p) We commend not us selves again to you, but we give to you occasion to have glory for us, that ye have to them that glory in the face, and not in the heart.
(t) ¶ We praise not ourselves again unto you, but give you an occasion to rejoice of us, that ye may have somewhat against them, which rejoice in the face, and not in the heart.
(g) For we praise not ourselves again unto you, but give you an occasion to rejoice of us, that ye may have to answer against them, which rejoice in the face, and not in the heart.
(k) For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance {Gr. in the face}, and not in heart.
- 5:13 (w) Soothly whether we by mind, or reason, pass it is to God, whether we be sober it is to you?
(p) For either we by mind pass to God, either we be sober to you.

(k) For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.
- 5:14 (w) For the charity of Christ driveth us; guessing, or deeming, this thing, that if one died for all, then all were dead.
(p) For the charity of Christ driveth us; guessing this thing, that if one died for all, then all were dead.
(t) For the love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, if one be dead for all, that then are all dead,
(g) For that love of Christ constraineth us, because we thus judge, that if one be dead for all, then were all dead;
(k) For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:
- 5:15 (w) And Christ died for all, that they that live, live not now to themselves, but to him that died for them, and rose again.
(p) And Christ died for all, that they that live, live not now to themselves, but to him that died for them, and rose again.

(k) And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.
- 5:16 (w) And so we from this time have known no man after the flesh; and if we knew Christ after the flesh, but right now we know not.
(p) Therefore we from this time know no man after the flesh; though we (have) known Christ after the flesh, but now we know not.
(t) ¶ Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh. Insomuch [that] though we have known Christ after the flesh, now henceforth know we him so no more.
(g) Wherefore, henceforth know we no man after the flesh, yea though we had known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.
(k) Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.
- 5:17 (w) Therefore if any new creature is in Christ, old things have passed. Lo! all things be made new,
(p) Therefore if any new creature is in Christ, the old things be passed. Lo! all things be made new,
(t) Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. Old things are passed away, behold all things are become new.
(g) Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a new creature. Old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.
(k) Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is {or, let him be} a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.
- 5:18 (w) and all things be of God, which reconciled us to him by Christ, and gave to us the ministry, or service, of reconciling.
(p) and all things be of God, which reconciled us to him by Christ, and gave to us the service of reconciling.
(t) Nevertheless all things are of God, which hath reconciled us unto himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given unto us the office to preach the atonement.

(t) for he hath made him to be sin for us, which knew no sin, that we by his means should be that righteousness which before God is allowed.
(g) For he hath made him to be sin for us, which knew no sin, that we should be made the righteousness of God in him.
(k) For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

(t) ¶ Behold what diligence this godly sorrow that ye took hath wrought in you: yea it caused you to clear yourselves. It caused indignation, it caused fear, it caused desire, it caused a fervent mind, it caused punishment. For in all things ye have showed yourselves that ye were clear in that matter [business].
(g) For behold, this thing that ye have been godly sorry, what great care it hath wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, how great desire, yea, what a zeal, yea, what revenge, in all things ye have shewed yourselves, that ye are pure in this matter.
(k) For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.
- 7:12 (w) Therefore though I wrote to you, I wrote not for him that did the injury, neither for him that suffered, but to show our busyness, which we have for you before God.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (p) Therefore though I wrote to you, I wrote not for him that did the injury, neither for him that suffered, but to show our busyness, which we have for you before God.
- (t) Wherefore though I wrote [have written] unto you, I did it not for his cause that did hurt, neither for his cause that was hurt: but that our good mind which we have toward you in the sight of God, might appear unto you.
- (g) Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the injury, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appear unto you.
- (k) Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.
- 7:13 (w) Therefore we be comforted, but in your comfort more plenteously we joyed more on the joy of Titus, for his spirit is fulfilled of all you.
- (p) Therefore we be comforted, but in your comfort more plenteously we joyed more on the joy of Titus, for his spirit is fulfilled of all you.
- (t) ¶ Therefore we are comforted, because ye are comforted: yea and exceedingly the more joyed we, for the joy that Titus had: because his spirit was refreshed of you all.
- (g) Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted, but rather we rejoiced much more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
- (k) Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.
- 7:14 (w) And if I gloried any thing with him of you, I am not confounded, or shamed; but as we have spoken to you all things in truth, so also our glory that was at Titus, is made truth.
- (p) And if I gloried any thing with him of you, I am not confounded; but as we have spoken to you all things, so also our glory that was at Titus, is made truth.
- (t) I am therefore not now ashamed, though I boasted myself to him of you. For as all things which I preached unto you are true, even so is our boasting, that I boasted myself to Titus withal, found true.
- (g) For if that I have boasted anything to him of you, I have not been ashamed; but as I have spoken unto you all things in truth, even so our boasting unto Titus was true.
- (k) For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.
- 7:15 (w) And the entrails of him be more plenteous in you, which hath in mind the obedience of you all, how with dread and trembling ye received him.
- (p) And the inwardness of him be more plenteously in you, which hath in mind the obedience of you all, how with dread and trembling ye received him.
- (t) And now is his inward affection more abundant toward you, when he remembereth the obedience of every one of you: how with fear and trembling ye received him.
- (g) And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with fear and trembling ye received him.
- (k) And his inward affection {Gr. bowels} is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.
- 7:16 (w) I joy, that in all things I trust in you.
- (p) I have joy, that in all things I trust in you.
- (t) I rejoice that I may be bold over you in all things.
- (g) I rejoice therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.
- (k) I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8

- 8:1 (w) But, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God, that is given in the churches of Macedonia,
(p) But, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God, that is given in the churches of Macedonia,
(t) ¶ I do you to wit brethren of the grace of God, which is given in the congregations of Macedonia,
(g) We do you also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed upon the Churches of Macedonia,
(k) Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;
- 8:2 (w) that in much assaying of tribulation, the abundance, or plenty, of the joy of them was, and the highest poverty of them was plenteous into the riches of the simpleness of them.
(p) that in much assaying of tribulation, the plenty of the joy of them was, and the highest poverty of them was plenteous into the riches of the simpleness of them.
(t) how that the abundance of their rejoicing is, that they are tried with much tribulation. And thereto though they were exceeding poor, yet have they given exceeding richly, and that in singleness [And how that their poverty, though it be deep, yet hath flowed over, and is become unto them riches in singleness].
(g) Because in great trial of affliction their joy abounded, and their most extreme poverty abounded unto their rich liberality.
(k) How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality {Gr. simplicity}.
- 8:3 (w) For I bear witnessing to them, after virtue, or power, and above virtue they were willful,
(p) For I bear witnessing to them, after might and above might they were willful,
(t) For to their powers (I bear [them] record) yea and beyond their power, they were willing of their own accord,
(g) For to their power (I bear record) yea, and beyond their power they were willing,
(k) For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;
- 8:4 (w) with much admonishing beseeching us the grace and the communing of the ministering, that is made to holy men.
(p) with much admonishing beseeching us the grace and the communing of ministering, that is made to holy men.
(t) and prayed us with great instance, that we would receive their benefit, and suffer them to be partakers with other in ministering to the saints.
(g) And prayed us with great instance that we would receive the grace, and fellowship of the ministering which is toward the Saints.
(k) Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.
- 8:5 (w) And not as we hoped, but they gave themselves first to the Lord, afterward to us by the will of God.
(p) And not as we hoped, but they gave themselves first to the Lord, afterward to us by the will of God.
(t) And this they did, not as we looked for: but gave their own selves first to the Lord, and after unto us by the will of God:
(g) And this they did, not as we looked for, but gave their own selves, first to the Lord, and after unto us by the will of God,
(k) And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.
- 8:6 (w) So that we prayed Titus, that as he began, so also he perform in you this grace.
(p) So that we prayed Titus, that as he began, so also he perform in you this grace.
(t) so that we could not but desire Titus to accomplish the same benevolence among you also, even as he had begun.
(g) That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (k) Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace {or, gift} also.
- 8:7 (w) But as ye abound in all things, in faith, and word, and science, or knowing, and all busyness, moreover and in your charity into us, that also in this grace ye abound.
(p) But as ye abound in all things, in faith, and word, and knowing, and all busyness, moreover and in your charity into us, that also in this grace ye abound.
(t) ¶ Now therefore, as ye are rich in all parts, in faith, in word, in knowledge, in all ferventness, and in love, which ye have to us: even so see that ye be plenteous in this benevolence.
(g) Therefore, as ye abound in everything, in faith and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love towards us, even so see that ye abound in this grace also.
(k) Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.
- 8:8 (w) I say not as commanding, but by the busyness of other men proving also the good wit of your charity.
(p) I say not as commanding, but by the busyness of other men proving also the good wit of your charity.
(t) This say I not as commanding: but because other are so fervent, therefore prove I your love, whether it be perfect or no.
(g) This say I not by commandment, but because of the diligence of others, therefore prove I the naturalness of your love.
(k) I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.
- 8:9 (w) And ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he was made needy for you, when he was rich, that ye should be made rich by his mis-ease, or neediness.
(p) And ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he was made needy for you, when he was rich, that ye should be made rich by his neediness.
(t) Ye know the liberality of our Lord Jesus Christ, which though he were rich, yet for your sakes became poor: that ye through his poverty might be made rich.
(g) For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poor, that ye through his poverty might be made rich.
(k) For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.
- 8:10 (w) And I give counsel in this thing; for this is profitable to you, that not only have begun to do, but and to desire from the former year.
(p) And I give counsel in this thing; for this is profitable to you, that not only have begun to do, but also ye began to have will from the former year.
(t) ¶ And I give counsel hereto: For this is expedient for you, which began, not to do only: but also to will, a year ago.
(g) And I shew my mind herein, for this is expedient for you, which have begun not to do only, but also to will, a year ago.
(k) And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward {Gr. willing} a year ago.
- 8:11 (w) Now forsooth perform ye in deed, that as the discretion of will is ready to desire good, so be it also of performing of that that ye have.
(p) But now perform ye in deed, that as the discretion of will is ready, so be it also of performing of that that ye have.
(t) Now therefore perform the deed, that as there was in you a readiness to will, even so ye may perform the deed, of that which ye have.
(g) Now therefore perform to do it also, that as there was a readiness to will, even so ye may perform it of that which ye have.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (k) Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.
- 8:12 (w) For if the will be ready, it is accepted after that that it hath, not after that that it hath not.
(p) For if the will be ready, it is accepted after that that it hath, not after that that it hath not.
(t) For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.
(g) For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.
(k) For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.
- 8:13 (w) Forsooth not that it be remission, or idleness/or sloth, to other men, and to you tribulation;
(p) And not that it be remission to other men, and to you tribulation;
(t) ¶ It is not my mind that other be set at ease, and ye brought into cumbrance:
(g) Neither is it that other men should be eased and you grieved;
(k) For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:
- 8:14 (w) but of evenness, in this present time your abundance fulfill the mis-ease of them, that and the abundance of them be supplement, or fulfilling, of your mis-ease, or need, that evenness be made;
(p) but of evenness in the present time your abundance fulfill the need of them, that also the abundance of them be a fulfilling of your need, that evenness be made;
(t) but that there be equalness now at this time, that [equalness. Let] your abundance succor their lack: that their abundance may supply your lack: that there may be equality [at this present time of dearth],
(g) But upon like condition, at this time your abundance supplieth their lack; that also their abundance may be for your lack, that there may be equality;
(k) But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:
- 8:15 (w) as it is written, He that hath gathered much, was not increased, and he that had gathered little, had not less.
(p) as it is written, He that gathered much, was not increased, and he that gathered little, had not less.
(t) agreeing to that which is written: He that gathered much had never the more abundance, and he that gathered little, had nevertheless.
(g) As it is written, He that gathered much, had nothing over, and he that gathered little, had not the less.
(k) As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.
- 8:16 (w) And I do thankings to God, that gave the same busyness for you in the heart of Titus,
(p) And I do thankings to God, that gave the same busyness for you in the heart of Titus,
(t) Thanks be unto God, which put in the heart of Titus the same good mind toward you.
(g) And thanks be unto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.
(k) But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.
- 8:17 (w) for soothly he received exhortation; but when he was busier, with his will he went forth to you.
(p) for he received exhortation; but when he was busier, by his will he went forth to you.
(t) For he accepted the [our] request. Yea rather he was so well willing, that [he] of his own accord came unto you.
(g) Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was so careful that of his own accord he went unto you.
(k) For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.
- 8:18 (w) And we sent with him a brother, whose praising is in the gospel by all churches.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (p) And we sent with him a brother, whose praising is in the gospel by all churches.
(t) ¶ We have sent with him that brother whose laud is in the gospel throughout all the congregations:
(g) And we have sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches.
(k) And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;
- 8:19 (w) And not only praised, but also he is ordained of churches the fellow of our pilgrimage into this grace, that is ministered of us to the glory of the Lord, and to our ordained will;
(p) And not only, but also he is ordained of churches the fellow of our pilgrimage into this grace, that is ministered of us to the glory of the Lord, and to our ordained will;
(t) and not so only, but is also chosen of the congregations to be a fellow with us in our journey, [as] concerning this benevolence that is ministered by us unto the praise of the Lord, and to stir up your prompt mind.
(g) (And not so only, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our journey, concerning this grace that is ministered by us unto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt mind.)
(k) And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace {or, gift}, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:
- 8:20 (w) eschewing this thing, that no man blame us in this plenty, that is ministered of us to the glory of the Lord.
(p) eschewing this thing, that no man blame us in this plenty, that is ministered of us to the glory of the Lord.
(t) ¶ For [And] this we eschew that any man should rebuke us in this plenteous distribution [abundance], that is ministered by us,
(g) Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance that is ministered by us,
(k) Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:
- 8:21 (w) For we purvey good things, not only before God, but also before all men.
(p) For we purvey good things, not only before God, but also before all men.
(t) and therefore make provision for honest things, not in the sight of God only, but also in the sight of men.
(g) Providing for honest things, not only before the Lord, but also before men.
(k) Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.
- 8:22 (w) Forsooth we sent with them and our brother, whom we have proved in many things oft, to be busy, now forsooth much busier, in much trust in you,
(p) For we sent with them also our brother, whom we have proved in many things oft, that he was busy, but now much busier, for much trust in you,
(t) ¶ We have sent with them a brother of ours whom we have oft times proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent.
(g) And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oft times proved to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence, which I have in you.
(k) And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have {or, he hath} in you.
- 8:23 (w) either for Titus, that is my fellow and helper in you, either our brethren, apostles of the churches of the glory of Christ.
(p) either for Titus, that is my fellow and helper in you, either for our brethren, apostles of the churches of the glory of Christ.
(t) The great confidence which I have in you hath caused me this to do: partly for Titus' sake which is my fellow, and helper as concerning you: partly because of other which are our brethren, and the messengers of the congregations, and the glory of Christ.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

(g) Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper toward you; or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ.

(k) Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

- 8:24 (w) Therefore show ye to them in the face of churches, the showing that is of your charity and of our glory for you.
(p) Therefore show ye to them in the face of churches, that showing that is of your charity and of our glory for you.
(t) Wherefore show unto them the proof of your love, and of the rejoicing that we have of you, that the congregations may see it.
(g) Wherefore shew toward them, and before the Churches the proof of your love, and of the rejoicing that we have of you.
(k) Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9

- 9:1 (w) For of the ministry that is made to holy men, it is to me of plenty to write to you.
(p) For of the ministry that is made to holy men, it is to me of plenty to write to you.
(t) ¶ Of the ministering to the saints, it is but superfluous for me to write unto you:
(g) For as touching the ministering to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write unto you.
(k) For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:
- 9:2 (w) For I know your ready will, for the which I have glory of you with Macedonians, for also Achaia is ready from a year passed, and your love hath stirred full many.
(p) For I know your will, for the which I have glory of you with Macedonians, for also Achaia is ready from a year passed, and your love hath stirred full many.
(t) for I know your readiness of mind, whereof I boast myself unto them of Macedonia, and say that Achaia was prepared a year ago, and your ferventness hath provoked many.
(g) For I know your readiness of mind, whereof I boast myself of you unto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a year ago, and your zeal hath provoked many.
(k) For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.
- 9:3 (w) And we have sent brethren, that this thing that we glory of you, be not voided in this part, that as I said, ye be ready.
(p) And we have sent brethren, that this thing that we glory of you, be not voided in this part, that as I said, ye be ready.
(t) Nevertheless yet have I sent these brethren, lest our rejoicing over you should be in vain in this behalf, and that ye (as I have said) prepare yourselves,
(g) Now have I sent the brethren, lest our rejoicing over you should be in vain in this behalf, that ye (as I have said) be ready;
(k) Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:
- 9:4 (w) Lest when Macedonians come with me, and find you unready, we be shamed, that we say you not/that we saw you not, in this substance.
(p) Lest when Macedonians come with me, and find you unready, we be shamed, that we say you not/that we saw you not, in this substance.
(t) lest peradventure if they of Macedonia come with me and find you unprepared, the boast that I made in this matter should be a shame to us: I say not unto you.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (g) Lest if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we may not say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.
- (k) Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.
- 9:5 (w) Therefore I guessed necessary to pray brethren, that they come before to you, and make ready this promised blessing to be ready, so as blessing, and not as avarice.
- (p) Therefore I guessed necessary to pray brethren, that they come before to you, and make ready this promised blessing to be ready, so as blessing, and not as avarice.
- (t) ¶ Wherefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, to come before hand unto you, for to prepare your good blessing promised afore, that it might be ready: so that it be a blessing, and not a defrauding.
- (g) Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before unto you, and to finish your benevolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of benevolence, and not as of niggardliness.
- (k) Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty {Gr. blessing}, whereof ye had notice before {or, which hath been so much spoken of before}, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.
- 9:6 (w) This thing forsooth I say, he that soweth scarcely, shall also reap scarcely; and he that soweth in blessings, shall reap also of blessings.
- (p) For I say this thing, he that soweth scarcely, shall also reap scarcely; and he that soweth in blessings, shall reap also of blessings.
- (t) This yet remember, how that he which soweth little, shall reap little: and he that soweth plenteously shall reap plenteously.
- (g) This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reap also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shall reap also liberally.
- (k) But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.
- 9:7 (w) Each man as he cast in his heart, not of heaviness, or of need; for God loveth a glad giver.
- (p) Each man as he casted in his heart, not of heaviness, or of need; for God loveth a glad giver.
- (t) And let every man do according as he hath purposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity. For God loveth a cheerful giver.
- (g) As every man wisheth in his heart, so let him give, not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver.
- (k) Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.
- 9:8 (w) And God is mighty to make all grace abound in you, that ye, in all things evermore having all sufficiency, abound into all good work;
- (p) And God is mighty to make all grace abound in you, that ye in all things evermore have all sufficiency, and abound into all good work;
- (t) ¶ God is able to make you rich in all grace, that ye in all things having sufficient unto the utmost, may be rich unto all manner good works,
- (g) And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound in every good work,
- (k) And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:
- 9:9 (w) as it is written, He dealed abroad, he gave to poor men, his rightwiseness dwelleth into without end.

Book 47 The Second Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians
Comparison of important early New Testament translations with the King James Version

- (p) as it is written, He dealed abroad, he gave to poor men, his rightwiseness dwelleth without end.
(t) as it is written: He that [hath] sparsed abroad and hath given to the poor, his righteousness remaineth forever.
(g) (As it is written, He hath sparsed abroad and hath given to the poor, his benevolence remaineth forever.
(k) (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.
- 9:10 (w) Forsooth he that ministereth seed to the man sowing, and shall give bread to eat, and he shall multiply your seed, and make much the increasing of fruits of your rightwiseness;
(p) And he that ministereth seed to the sower, shall give also bread to eat, and he shall multiply your seed, and make much the increasings of fruits of your rightwiseness;
(t) He that findeth the sower seed, shall minister bread for food, and shall multiply your seed, and increase the fruits of your righteousness
(g) Also he that findeth seed to the sower, will minister likewise bread for food, and multiply your seed, and increase the fruits of your benevolence,)
(k) Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)
- 9:11 (w) that in all things made rich abound into all simpleness, which worketh by us doing of thankings to God.
(p) that in all things ye made rich wax plenteous into all simpleness, which worketh by us doing of thankings to God.
(t) that on all parts, ye may be made rich in all singleness, which causeth through us, thanks giving unto God.
(g) That on all parts ye may be made rich unto all liberality, which causeth through us thanksgiving unto God.
(k) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness {or, liberality: Gr. simplicity}, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.
- 9:12 (w) For the ministry of this office not only filleth those things that fail to holy men, but also aboundeth by many in doing of thankings to the Lord,
(p) For the ministry of this office not only filleth those things that fail to holy men, but also multiplieth many thankings to God,
(t) ¶ For the office of this ministration, not only supplieth the need of the saints: but also is abundant herein, that for this laudable ministering, thanks might be given to God of many,
(g) For the ministration of this service not only supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thanksgiving of many unto God,
(k) For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;
- 9:13 (w) by the proving of this ministry, which glorify God in the obedience of your acknowledging in the gospel of Christ, and in simpleness of communication into them and into all others,
(p) by the proving of this ministry, which glorify God in the obedience of your acknowledging in the gospel of Christ, and in simpleness of communication into them and into all,
(t) which praise God for the obedience of your professing [for your obedience in knowledging] the gospel of Christ, and for your singleness, in distributing to them, and to all men.
(g) (Which by the experiment of this ministration praise God for your voluntary submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men.)

CHAPTER 10

- 10:1 (w) Forsooth I Paul beseech you, by the gentleness, or mildness, and softness, or patience, of Christ, which in the face am meek among you, and I absent trust in you.
(p) And I myself Paul beseech you, by the mildness and softness of Christ, which in the face am meek among you, and I absent trust in you.
(t) ¶ I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and softness of Christ, which when I am present among you, am of no reputation, but am bold toward you being absent.
(g) Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness, and gentleness of Christ, which when I am present among you am base, but am bold toward you being absent;
(k) Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence {or, in outward appearance} am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:
- 10:2 (w) Forsooth, I pray you, that I present be not hardy by that trust, in which I am guessed to be hardy into some, which deem us, as (if) we wandered after the flesh.
(p) For I pray you, that lest I present be not bold by the trust, in which I am guessed to be bold into some, that deem us, as if we wander after the flesh.
(t) I beseech you that I need not to be bold when I am present (with that same confidence, wherewith I am supposed to be bold) against some which repute us as though we walked carnally.
(g) And this I require you, that I need not to be bold when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which esteem us as though we walked according to the flesh.
(k) But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think {or, reckon} of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
- 10:3 (w) For we walking in the flesh, fight not after the flesh.
(p) For we walking in the flesh, fight not after the flesh.
(t) Nevertheless though we walk compassed with the flesh, yet we war not fleshly.
(g) Nevertheless, though we walk in the flesh, yet we do not war after the flesh.
(k) For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:
- 10:4 (w) For the arms of our knighthood be not fleshly, but mighty by God to the destruction of wardings, or strengths.
(p) For the arms of our knighthood be not fleshly, but mighty by God to the destruction of strengths.
(t) For the weapons of our war are not carnal things, but things mighty in God to cast down strongholds,
(g) (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God, to cast down holds.)
(k) (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)
- 10:5 (w) Destroying counsels, and all highness raising itself against the science of God, and driving into captivity all understanding into the service of Christ.

- (t) and are ready to take vengeance on all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
- (g) And having ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
- (k) And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
- 10:7 (w) See ye the things that be after the face. If any man trusteth to himself, that he is of Christ, think he this thing again with himself, for as he is Christ's, so and we.
- (p) See ye the things that be after the face. If any man trusteth to himself, that he is of Christ, think he this thing again with himself, for as he is Christ's, so also we.
- (t) Look ye on things after the utter appearance.
- (g) Look ye on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again of himself, that as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
- (k) Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
- 10:8 (w) For if I shall glory any thing more of our power, which the Lord gave to us into edifying, and not into your destruction, I shall not be shamed.
- (p) For if I shall glory any thing more of our power, which the Lord gave to us into edifying, and not into your destruction, I shall not be shamed.
- (t) ¶ If any man trust in himself that he is Christ's, let the same also consider of himself, that as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. And though I should boast myself somewhat more of our authority which the Lord hath given us to edify and not to destroy you, it should not be to my shame.
- (g) For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should have no shame.
- (k) For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:
- 10:9 (w) Forsooth that I be not guessed as to fear you by epistles,
- (p) But that I be not guessed as to frighten you by epistles,
- (t) This say I, lest I should seem as though I went about to make you afraid with letters.
- (g) This I say, that I may not seem as it were to fear you with letters.
- (k) That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
- 10:10 (w) for why they say, The epistles be heavy, or grievous, and strong, but the presence of the body is sick, and the word contemptible, or worthy to be despised.

(p) He that is such one, think this, for such as we absent be in word by epistles, such we be present in deed.
(t) Let him that is such think on this wise, that as we are in words by letters when we are absent, such are we in deeds when we are present.
(g) Let such one think this, that such as we are in word by letters, when we are absent, such will we be also indeed, when we are present.
(k) Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.
- 10:12 (w) Soothly we dare not put us among, or comparison us to some, that commend themselves; but we meting, or measuring, us in ourselves, and comparisoning ourselves to us.
(p) For we dare not put us among, or comparison us to some men, that commend themselves; but we measure us in us selves, and comparison us selves to us.
(t) ¶ For we cannot find in our hearts to make ourselves of the number of them, or to compare ourselves to them, which laud themselves: nevertheless [but] while they measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves, they understand naught.
(g) For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or to compare ourselves to them, which praise themselves; but they understand not that they measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves.
(k) For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise {or, understand it not}.
- 10:13 (w) For we shall not have glory over measure, but after the measure of rule which God measured to us, the measure that stretcheth till to you.
(p) For we shall not have glory over measure, but by the measure of the rule which God measured to us, the measure that stretcheth to you.
(t) But we will not rejoice above measure: but according to the quantity of the measure which God hath distributed unto us, a measure that reacheth even unto you.
(g) But we will not rejoice of things, which are not within our measure, but according to the measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed unto us a measure to attain even unto you.
(k) But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule {or, line} which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.
- 10:14 (w) For we overstretch not forth us, as not stretching to you. For till to you we came in the gospel of Christ,
(p) For we overstretch not forth us, as not stretching to you. For to you we came in the gospel of Christ,
(t) For we stretch not out ourselves beyond measure as though we had not reached unto you. For even unto you have we come with the gospel of Christ,
(g) For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we had not attained unto you, for even to you also have we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ;
(k) For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

(g) Not boasting of things which are without our measure, that is, of other men's labors, and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,

(k) Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you {or, magnified in you} according to our rule abundantly,

(t) I despise not the grace of God: For if righteousness come of the law, then Christ died [is Christ dead] in vain.

(g) I do not abrogate the grace of God, for if righteousness be by the Law, then Christ died without a cause.

(k) I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.
